INTRODUCTION

This volume continues the publication of the records of the descendants of Samuel Tingley, as researched by my mother, Mrs. Marian M. Frye. Since Mrs. Frye is no longer able to continue with the publication of these records I will attempt to continue the task.

Any errors or additional information regarding the records in this volume or in previous volumes may be sent to Harold E. Frye, 20 Millbank Road, Poughkeepsie, NY 12603-5112, U.S.A.

09-00537-02 IRENE (nmn) TINGLEY-HALL[10] (Arthur[9], Edward[8], David[7], Daniel[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), P.O. Box 21, New Carlisle, Que. GOC 1ZO, born Sep. 3, 1909 at Baltimore, Albert Co., N. B.; married Dec. 23, 1932 at New Carlisle, P. Q., Amos Warren, son of John and Annie Laura (Hall) Hall, of New Carlisle, Que., born July 1, 1906 at New Carlisle, Que.; died Sep. 12, 1975 at home in his sleep, following a 2-day illness; was buried Sep. 15, 1975 in St. Andrews Anglican Church Cemetery at New Carlisle, Que. He was a farmer and had been town councillor since Jan. 1956. As stated by Irene to the compiler by letter Oct. 20, 1975:

"On Monday, Sep. 8th, he was helping John bind the grain, when he took terrible pains in his arms and chest. John brought him home from the field but he refused to see the doctor. He said it was only a sprain from holding the levers on the binder. He was sleeping a lot all week but several times each day he was out driving his car. Only the night before his death he was down town with his car to visit a man he used to work with at the Government Garage. He came home in quite good cheer, so you can imagine the terrible shock when I found him dead the next morning, Sept. 12th. He died peacefully in his sleep. I just couldn't believe he was dead.

"He had a very large funeral, over 500 signed the visitor's book and I've sent out over 200 thank you notes for donations to the various societies such as the heart fund, cancer society, bible society, church memorial funds, etc. I was so stunned that I couldn't do anything for a few days."

As reported in the T-U Quarterly Newsletter of January 1973 by the Editor, Frank Tingley: "Those of you who met Bertha's father, Arthur Bela Tingley, at the reunion, will be glad to know that he continues reasonably well. You may not know that he was struck by an automobile about twenty years ago, and really badly broken up. His recovery from that battering was a miracle of healing. He had been a great asset to his community through these years. At long last he has been compelled to retire, and your editor is taking a privilege in quoting from his last letter: 'I have been forced to close the shop on account of arthritis in my right arm. In fact, my right hip is not too good. That is where I was hit in that accident. But I have already gone too far with my complaints. My appetite is good and my nerves are good. I still sleep like a youngster for which I thank God and give Him all the glory and praise.'"

A biography by his daughter Bertha Tingley Hopper as published in the April, 1974 T-U Newsletter:

"Dad was born March 22, 1882 (she has now conceded that it was 1881) in Mapleton, Albert County, N.B. When dad was five, grandfather moved back to Forest Glenn, where he lived for 14 years.

"When dad was 16 he left school. He had taken the equivalent of Grade IX, which was as far as he could go at that school. Dad was a very good student and did beautiful book work. Some were done so nicely that Mother kept them, but they were burned when their house burned in the summer of 1933. I remember so well how neat the books were. Mine were so sloppy that I admired his work the more.

"Dad used to do the janitor work at school which consisted of sweeping the floor and lighting the fire. He had to go early to start the fire so it would warm up before school.

"When dad left school he went to work in the hayfields. After that he worked as delivery boy for Gross & Dawson Grocery. When dad was 19 grandfather moved to Caledonia Mountain and dad helped on the farm. When dad was 21, he and his brother James Franklin went to Maine and dad went to work for Arthur B. Doolittle in the township of Madison about 5 miles from the city on the Kennebec River. Uncle Percy stayed on the farm but decided that he didn't want to stay and farm alone. Grandfather said that there wasn't enough there for him and Dad but they sent for Dad to come back and Uncle Percy went to Providence, RI.

"Dad must have come home before Uncle Percy left because Dad told me that the first time he saw Mother was at the post office on Caledonia Mountain. He and Uncle Percy were there together. Dad jokingly said to Uncle Percy: 'That's the girl I'm going to marry!' Strangely that is what happened on July 24, 1907, and Dad took Mother in to his family. This is a mistake at any time, and it was no different then. Mother was so unhappy that Dad had to move to a home of his own. Dad rented the McLatchey farm in Baltimore (New Brunswick), and Aunt Nellie and Uncle Morris moved in with Grampy and Grammy. Earl was born on Caledonia Mountain and Irene and I were both born in Baltimore. In the meantime Aunt Nellie and Uncle Morris with the parents bought a home in Lewisville. After Dad's mother died he moved to Lewisville also. He and mother lived in part of Aunt Nell's house. That was the fall of 1911. While living there Eddie was born. Dad went to work at the Bank of Nova Scotia. He drove to Moncton with a horse and carriage. With his growing family he found the pay too small to live on so he went to work as a fireman on the railroad. That was the time when the coal for the engine was all shoveled by hand. In the meantime Dad had a chance to buy a home from Sandy McDonald down in the center of Lewisville. At the time it was the second house above the Baptist Church. While at this home there were three more babies: Vera, Jim and Frank.

"Dad dug the basement under this home by pick and shovel and landscaped the front yard. Even after fifty years I think I could draw a plan of this house. I loved it! There was neighbor trouble here - children fighting - and when their father took up the cudgel Mother decided it would be better for us on a farm, so once more Dad gave in and sold the home. Dad bought the farm, where brothers Earl and Jim now live. We moved in the fall of 1921. This meant that Dad had to board in Moncton and was only able to get home between trips on the engine.

"When Dad sent for his birth certificate the authorities had him as one year older so at age 64 he went on pension. Dad tried to keep busy that first year of his retirement but he couldn't stand not working so he bought Ed's leather shop where he worked at repairing harness, shoes, and other leather goods for the next 25 years, retiring last fall due to arthritis in his arm which made a cobbler's job very difficult.

"Mother passed away in 1940 and Dad boarded with me but he found it very lonely. We moved to Salisbury in January of 1942 and Dad met his second wife here and married her in 1944.

"Dad still walks to the post office, to the store and to church. Hard work with little time for recreation has been Dad's lot, but through the years he developed a wonderful philosophy of life!"

Our Dad's Last Days

(as reported by his daughter, Bertha Hopper)

"Dad is gone! He seemed a bit confused on Sept. 29th when Vera and Murray were here playing Rack-o with us; on Tuesday, Sept. 30th, I knew he wasn't feeling right but he helped me with dishes as usual and he wanted to play Rack-o but he couldn't seem to play it so I played for us both and he won. He smiled at that and said he didn't know how he could have.

"The next morning, Wed. Oct. 1st he didn't get up so I went in at noon (he slept until noon sometimes) and he was lying across the bed; he said he couldn't get up, he had tried to dress himself. I put his pajamas back on him, got him straightened out on the bed and gave him something to eat, then phoned the doctor. The doctor said there was no bed available in the hospital and that he was just as well here. I phoned Jim, Earl and Vera who all came and Betty came and helped me take care of Dad as she had worked in nursing home so was experienced.

"Thursday, Oct. 2nd Dad was worse. I pureed some soup and meat and spooned about a half cup down him and Jim got a little milk down him. That night we sent for the doctor, he was not paralyzed. Doctor said it was not a stroke but a blood clot on the brain. He went to sleep Thursday night and never woke up. Friday and Saturday he wasn't even getting fluids. We were afraid he would dehydrate so Jim talked to the doctor again and he said if we would call the ambulance and get him right in, that he would find a bed so Sat., Oct. 4th we took him to hospital where they put him on intravenous; the next week they put him on antibiotics to help the congestion in his chest. The nurse told me it was caused because he wasn't moving around. We tried to get in every day even though he didn't know us. He was in hospital just 5 weeks to the day. I felt very bad that I didn't get in the day before he died. The hospital sent for us twice but Dad rallied both times. Dr. Atkinson said his brain was dead but his heart wouldn't give up.

"Jim and I went in Sunday afternoon Nov. 2nd. At 7 P.M. the nurse called us in again so Earl, Jim, Murray, Vera and I went in but they had given him oxygen and he was better when we got there. We stayed until 11:30 P.M. Jim was going to stay all night but he had gotten up at 5 A.M. and was exhausted so I insisted on him going home too. I went in next morning and stayed all day. I had my knitting, but he didn't seem any worse. He just gradually got weaker. I went in every day that week, either afternoon or evening except Friday, Nov. 7th and at 7 A.M. Saturday, Nov. 8, 1980, he passed away.

"There has been so many things to do that it hasn't really sunk in how lonely I'm going to be but I know that one day it will really hit me. There were so many visitors at the funeral home and surprisingly not a lot of tears, in fact I began to feel ashamed that I wasn't weeping and mentioned it to Susan and she said Rev. David Cook mentioned why - 'we knew that Dad was with God and he was ready to go'. Mind you I shed tears at home and will shed many more but I'm sad for me, not for Dad. I know how much I'm going to miss him.

"We chose all grandsons for pall-bearers as near as possible, one from each son and daughter, Frank's couldn't be here so two of Jim's acted as pall-bearers, Earl's son, Floyd, Irene's John, Vera's Raymond, Jim's Ralph and Roger, and my Harold (Junior). It was a beautiful service. Dad is resting beside our mother, his first wife."

Vigorous Old-timer Once Thought "A Delicate Child"

His daughter, Bertha Hopper, says family folklore has it that Arthur Tingley was considered a delicate child. Next month he'll celebrate his birthday looking back with fond memories on a vigorous life of 99 years, characterized by hard work and excellent health.

"I never drank or smoked", he notes, "But I took one chew of tobacco." That was when he was a youngster. He remembers the occasion with the clarity the elderly often seem to command when recalling events of their youth.

He was in the barn with an older brother. "He took a plug out of his pocket and cut off a slice. I said, 'give me a chew of that.' He just caught me by the back of the neck. He wanted to make sure I got enough. I did, and that was the last."

Art was born March 22, 1881, in a farm house on the Kaye Road at Mapleton, near Elgin, Albert County. There were 10 children in the family of Edward Allen and Annabelle (Colpitts) Tingley and six were boys.

His father at various times farmed, taught school and worked as a lumber surveyor for the company that operated the big saw mill at Forest Glen. The family moved to Forest Glen when Art was five, but he still has memories of his earliest years at the farm on the Kaye Road.

"I should tell you about the time the bears came out of the woods. Father didn't have too many sheep, he dodged around too much. There must be some Bedouin blood in us somewhere."

He explains that because bears were seen in the area the sheep were shut up in the barn.

"We had an old dog, Jack. A bear tore a board off the barn and tried to carry a sheep away. The dog wouldn't let him.

"Mother was home alone with us. I was too scared to remember much of anything." But he does remember, "the howls of the dog and the roar of the bear. We were a scared bunch."

The next morning one of his brothers ventured forth and found the battle had taken place beside a pole fence. "The sheep was there, dead. But he (the bear) didn't get it across the fence." The dog apparently survived.

Art "started and finished" school at Forest Glen and worked at least two seasons sorting logs on the mill pond. He remembers that for a boat on the pond the men used a huge piece of timber that had been rejected at the saw because of its size and dumped back into the water.

His father was "fired" from the mill because he wouldn't buy his supplies from the company store, an unwritten condition of employment. He thinks the mill was known at that time as the Steeves-Colpitts Mill and he recalls that his grandfather, Benjamin Colpitts, had built the mill dam on the Pollett River.

There were no cars and no hard-surfaced roads then and Art remembers volumes of dust billowing from horsedrawn rigs passing by. One May after seeding had started, a cold snap brought a snow storm that filled the roads with drifts. A plow made of planks and pulled by four horses cleared the way to the mill and opened a path to the Albert County line, which fortunately wasn't far since Forest Glen lies barely inside Westmorland's boundaries.

In his teens Art landed a job with Gross and Dawson of Moncton, a firm that operated a grocery store at the corner of Main and Foundry Streets, later the site of the Windsor Hotel and now occupied by Woolco. He delivered groceries by horse and wagon and remembers that the store was later sold to Don MacBeath.

The Tingley family was to spread out over the continent.

"We were about as far apart as (it was) possible (to be) and still be in North America." A brother eventually settled in Victoria on Vancouver Island and other members of the family went to the United States.

Art too sought work there, spending two years as a farm hand at North Anson, Me., "I got big pay, $1 a day and food." He's serious, in those days it was big pay.

He returned to New Brunswick and rejoined those of the family still at home, now living on a farm his father had bought on Caledonia Mountain.

"There were 50 farms there then", he observes, "then five within a year." He's speaking now of an area that included Crooked Creek as well as Caledonia and he believes remoteness was the downfall of the community.

"If there had been cars then, the farms would still be there."

With a chuckle he tells of his brother, Percy, extolling the virtues of a comely young lady who lived in the settlement, one Eliza MacRae.

"Percy was the ladies' man of the family, but I told him I'd beat him out." He did. Art and Eliza were married in an outdoor ceremony on Caledonia Mountain July 24, 1907.

The couple's first child, Earl, was born on the Mountain, then seven more, Irene, Bertha, Eddie, Vera, James, Frank and Douglas, during the years the family lived in Baltimore and on the Shediac Road in what is now the Lewisville area of Moncton.

Art tried his hand at farming in Baltimore, then went to work in Moncton for the Bank of Nova Scotia in a three-storey building at Main and East Market streets. He was messenger for the bank and janitor for the building and remembers lawyers' offices on the second floor and a hall on the top floor used by "the Sons of Temperance", he thinks.

He went to work for the Bank of Nova Scotia in 1911, and he says that was shortly after it had absorbed the old Bank of New Brunswick. He continued there until 1917 when he went to work for the railroad.

In the meantime the First World War came along and Art was ready to sign up. But he had five children to support by then and he was told he would be doing more for his country if he stayed home and worked.

With CN he was a fireman, hand firing big freight locomotives and later passenger engines on runs to Edmundston and Campbellton. The Edmundston haul was a tough one until it was split and the crew changed at Napadogan, he remarks. Shovelling coal was "hard work. I've probably shovelled enough coal to cover that field between here and the Fredericton Road." He points out the window to a wide lot.

In 1921 he moved his family to the Middlesex - Colpitts Settlement area, not far from Salisbury. From then while he remained with the railway he had to board a good deal to be close to his work.

Art says he was involved in three accidents while he worked on the railroad, all collisions. He escaped with nothing more serious than a cut on the back of one hand when a piece of glass flew into the cuff of his glove.

One mishap he recalls vividly. He was firing a freight that pulled into a siding at Dalhousie Junction to wait for a through passenger train. It was decided there was plenty of time to proceed to another siding at Dalhousie, since it was only a few miles away and the passenger train wasn't due.

Art remembers the engineer was Moody Trites. He pulled the long freight back onto the main line. They looked up and saw the passenger train coming head-on.

"Moody said, 'they're not supposed to be there!' I said, 'They are there, but they're not going to be there long!'

"He jumped and broke his wrist. I didn't have enough sense, but I didn't get hurt at all."

The collision put the passenger locomotive out of business but the freight engine was able to continue on after minor repairs. Art says he didn't jump during the other two collisions either.

Retirement from the railway in 1946 came too soon to suit him.

"I was insulted when they told me I had to retire. I didn't think I was old enough."

He notes that when he was born in 1881 births were not registered. "They (the railway) made me out to be a year older than I thought I was."

Retirement lasted all of one year. He couldn't stand it. He bought a shoe repair shop in Salisbury that had been operated by his son, Eddie. He had gained some experience along that line repairing his children's shoes over the years as a way to stretch dollars when times were hard.

He ran the shop at first one location and then a second in the village until he turned 91.

Eliza died in 1940 at the age of 53, and a few years later Art married a widow, Hazel (Moore) Crandall. She died in 1978.

He now lives with his daughter, Bertha and son-in-law Steve Hopper. She says he keeps abreast of the news by reading the newspaper, although he's forced to use a magnifying glass because of failing eyesight. His awareness of current events is illustrated as he talks of Caledonia Mountain and notes a boat (the Samphire) was built there and launched at Waterside less than two years ago.

Bertha says he has a fairly good appetite. He was a tea drinker during most of his life but gave it up some years ago and makes do with hot water and milk. The problem with his eyes rules out TV and he doesn't hear the radio well because of a degree of deafness that seems to vary from day to day. He has a hearing aid, but notes wryly, "sometimes it's an aid."

The most serious health problem he has ever experienced was a broken hip sustained when he was struck by a car. He was in his late 60's at the time and spent 45 days in the hospital.

He has remained active even in recent years. At 97 he helped in the garden, topping turnips. He helps wash the dishes every day. ..."I always wanted to help."

He enjoys having visitors and going for car rides and looks forward to a card game called Rack-o each evening. Bertha says he sleeps soundly at night and has an afternoon nap in his chair as well. He minds the cold.

All of Art's children are living except one. Douglas died at the age of nine.

In 1973 a reunion of his offspring was held and at that time his direct descendants numbered 75. Bertha says there's no doubt the number has increased since then. They include children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

In 1972 Art and Bertha attended a Tingley reunion in Houlton, ME. It was the first time he had been back to Maine since the two years he spent working on the farm at North Anson.

Art is the only surviving member of his immediate family. His forebears are traceable on both sides of the family tree. His father, Edward Allen Tingley, was a son of David Tingley, who in turn was a son of Daniel Tingley, the latter a son of Josiah Tingley who came to the Sackville area from Providence, R.I., in 1763.

His mother, Annabelle Colpitts, was a daughter of Benjamin Colpitts who was a son of Thomas Colpitts. Thomas was a son of Robert John Colpitts, the first of the Colpitts clan to arrive in the local area in 1783.

09-00537-07 FRANCIS DeMILLE TINGLEY[10] (Arthur[9], Edward[8], David[7], Daniel[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), 4612 - 106 Avenue, Edmonton, Alta. T6A 1E6, born Nov. 20, 1920 at Lewisville, N.B.; married May 23, 1941 at Moncton, N.B., Margaret Viola, daughter of Abram and Cassie Dysart (Johnson) McConnell, of Sunny Brae, N.B., born Oct. 31, 1913 at Irishtown, West. Co., N.B. Frank is a public school teacher with Edmonton Public School Board; has B. Sc. and B. Ed. degrees from Mt. Allison University, Sackville, N.B.

Their Christmas letter of 1979 as sent to friends and relatives follows:

"Christmas bells ring aloud and long! May He Whose name we celebrate preside over all the activities of this festive season. May your Christmas, 1979, be a preview of Heaven! It does seem more difficult each year to write letters but we want so much to get a note away to each of you, especially those who bother to write to us, at least once a year. What better time than Christmas?

"This year sped by with its many changes. New faces appeared and familiar faces passed from the scene. Each day brings subtle evidence that God's hand is controlling this universe, and daily He finds fascinating ways to show us that His Son lives and loves us. The rough trails and sad events make us more able and willing to appreciate the good times. The price of gold has soared this year but more precious than gold is the fellowship we have in Christ.

"The first snow this year was October 20th, and there was very little then. At that time the asters, calendulas, carnations, geraniums and snapdragons were blooming. As the flowers disappear we shall anticipate the wonders of the snowflakes and the frost fronds etched on the windows in such marvellous variety of designs. This fall the leaves have been the most colourful since our arrival in 1955! - Even the poplar out back was a burst of shimmering gold flecked with red. It has been a delight to drive along country roads and enjoy the colours. We even saw old fashioned stooks of wheat reminding us of the stooks of buckwheat I used to make about 50 years ago when helping on the farm.

"Since coming to Alberta we have wanted to see the Cypress Hills and the Peace River area. We were able to see both this summer, for a few days. We found old Fort Walsh partially restored. It had been at one time a thriving community and Canadian Headquarters of the Mounted Police. The park at Cypress Hills makes a very pretty setting and one can understand why the area was active in Western Canadian history. In the north we found the mighty Peace flowing majestically through beautiful country. It would be nice to spend a whole summer exploring the rich agricultural region.

"We were able to get some slides and so periodically (about 3 times a year) we set up the projector and have a dinner with slide-show. It sure does bring back memories. One slide we greatly treasure shows Dad hoeing in Bertha's garden (at age of 94!) and we have another great slide, a close-up, of Dad in Bertha's house, taken the same year.

"Our 'three kids' are keeping very busy, and are well. We trust each of you is the same. We thank God that we are able to keep busy.

"We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. This is an ancient saying, but do believe us, it is straight from our hearts. Margaret and Frank".

About one Tingley from Another - "I feel Xmasy and must take time to tell you a brief story about my experience with Frank D. Tingley (Our Secy. for T-U in Edmonton.)

"When I was School Superintendent in High River several years ago, Frank applied to me from his home in New Brunswick, for a job as teacher. I was attracted by the name Tingley and also by the fact that he was writing from my mother's old home area. I offered him a job and he drove nearly 3,000 miles to take it on bringing his wife and I think three small children.

"They had car trouble about half way there and hence they landed at our home one rainy night tired and discouraged and broke and we were able to feed them and befriend them.

"I conducted them to their teacherage 40 miles away that night in the rain for school was to open only two days later and his wife was so relieved that she gave way to tears when she found the teacherage nicely furnished and felt she was HOME again after their long and hard trip.

"I had a large number of class rooms under my supervision. They were spread over a large area and I saw little more of the Frank D. Tingleys until I joined the T-U family. Imagine my pleasant surprise to find that Frank D. now in Edmonton was the same Frank Tingley I had imported from N.B. some ten years before.

"Merry Xmas & Happy New Year 1973

"Your distant cousin, C.M. Laverty."

09-00545-02 FOREST CLAYTON TINGLEY[10] (Budd[9], Elijah[8], David[7], Daniel[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Houlton, ME, born July 16, 1902 at Linneus, ME; died May 16, 1981 at Houlton Regional Hospital, Houlton, ME; married Oct. 22, 1945 at Houlton, ME, Mildred (Mrs. Mildred Merrithew), daughter of Thomas and Irene M. (Saunders) Huggard, of Houlton, ME, a former classmate of his sister's, who has a daughter from a former marriage. Lou Ene was truly like a daughter to him - he loved her dearly. Mildred, born Apr. 2, 1900 at Houlton, ME, was a very devoted wife and his marriage to her was a great blessing to him. She was very understanding of his condition, and did all in her power to make his life as happy as possible. He was a farmer, harness racing trainer, and driver, also a W. W. II veteran. No children. Mildred, in 1981, is residing in their home, 22 Columbia St., Houlton, ME 07430.

With his parents he lived at Littleton for a few years, having come to Houlton in 1911, where he resided with the exception of a few years spent in Pennsylvania and his service in the S.W.P. during W.W. II.

He graduated from Houlton High School in 1924, where he had been a member of the baseball team that won the state championship and where he had taken part in Junior Class Speaking and had a leading role in their Senior Play.

After graduation he became interested in harness racing and, with his father, both trained and drove on the ME and N.B. circuit, of which his father was secretary.

In the summer of 1922 the Houlton group purchased a horse, Jackson Gratton, to race against Roy Gratton owned by a Fort Fairfield group and John R. Braden from Presque Isle.

During the early twenties he and his father, along with Percy Chappell and his father raced in the same races. About 1925 he went to Pennsylvania with a Mr. McGrath who had come as a trainer for Jackson Gratton, where he continued to race. He was there until called home in 1931 by the death of his sister, Helen. From then he farmed with his father on the Calais Road until 1942 when he was drafted.

He spent three years in service, in the Pacific area, returning in 1945. He never fully recovered from the illness he contracted while in the jungle. (as supplied by Bea Bates).

Mrs. Clark homesteaded with her brother and father in South Gove Co. in 1881.

Portion of a letter to Donna from her mother, Mariam McCartee follows:

"Yes, I got that package of genealogy sheets. Elva was here, so we opened it and looked through it. I want to go through it and do some checking on it. I noticed in one place there was a Mr. Crabbe. Later there was a notation that it was not known just when or why the name Crabbe had been changed to Crabtree.

"Well, Elva said when she was a little girl, Grandma Dorman came to visit them and her and Grandma Clark were talking. Grandma Dorman said that Crabtree was not their real name, that it had been just Crabbe and then they saw that she (Elva) was listening so they made her go out and play.

"Elva said one time she asked mama about it, but she was pretty old then, and didn't remember anything about it, but she (Elva) said one time when Grandma Dorman was at their place, Grandma Dorman told her that the island where New York was at one time, was a grant from the King of England to some Crabtree ancestors, whose names were gigi (g as in going or begin) and (I sounds like E).

"I have no idea how it was really spelled, but they were tories and were fighting for the king, and the other Americans were so mad at them, that these tories were run out and most went to Canada and New Brunswick because of the hostility toward them. She said Grandma was so mad at them, said she'd have helped them run them out if she had been there, surmised that this may have been one of the reasons for the change of name, especially since Grandma's dad went to Chicago when he did come back to the States. It also must have been quite confidential when Grandma was telling mama about it."[431]

09-00573-04 PAUL EMERY FILLMORE[10] (William[9], William[8], John[7], Jemima[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), 4505 W. 38th St., Sioux Fals, SD 57106, born Oct. 24, 1901 at Beresford, Union Co., SD; married first June 17, 1925 at bride's home, Atkinson, NE, Lela (nmn), daughter of James Boyd and Bertha Emily (Gates) Fullerton, of Atkinson, NE, born Mar. 4, 1902 at Atkinson, Holt Co., NE; died July 2, 1929 at Atkinson, NE, spinal meningitis, buried in Atkinson Cemetery, Atkinson, NE; she was a teacher before marriage; married second June 8, 1930 at Wessington Springs, SD, Lois Almeda, daughter of William Elmer and Lucy May (Purdy) Walker, of Wessington Springs, SD, born Mar. 9, 1902 at Lincoln, NE; died Jan. 1, 1981, Sioux Falls, SD, buried Jan. 3, 1981, Graceland Cemetery, Mitchell, SD. Lois was a teacher before marriage and later was general secretary for YWCA about 25 years and was in charge of the Women's Dept. in downtown Minneapolis, MN and served as YWCA Executive Director at Mitchell from 1936-47 - retired in 1964. She was a member of the Methodist Church and former board member of the YWCA in Sioux Falls. She adopted Paul's three children May 19, 1940.

"Paul lost his father when he was only 8 yrs. of age. He attended Redfield Public schools except for 4th grade in Coggan, IA, where he stayed with Bedie and Jim Leach. After the 8th grade he worked on the W.O. Strang farm until 1917-18 when he and Orlo rented the farm on halves, then in 1918 they sold their halves. Then he, Morter, Orlo and Chalmer Richardson and two other men bought the Light plant at Atkinson, NE, and the family moved there.

"In 1919 Paul signed up at Wessington Springs College to finish his high school but the school was soon put under quarantine for small pox. In 1920 he took a business course at the Chadron, NE Normal School and played on the all star basketball team. In 1921 he returned to Atkinson High School and completed his high school training in two years with a special course, coaching the basketball team there that year, on the side.

"Mother Fillmore moved to Mitchell in 1924 to stay at the Buehler Home while they were in Sioux City. Paul attended George Williams YMCA College in Chicago 1923-4, staying at mother's cousin Hattie and Sidney Hotten's home. At the same time Paul had a job as night watchman and was Physical Director at Swift Methodist church to help meet his expenses. In the summer he was playground instructor at Ogden Park in Chicago.

"In 1924 Orlo sold the plant and Paul got back his $2,000 plus 10 acres of ground and a dam. He returned to Atkinson after graduation at George Williams and married Lela Fullerton. He bought the town of Dustin - ghost town 18 mi. from Atkinson for $600, elected himself Mayor, tore down the houses! He used the lumber to build a new house, barn and windmill on the acreage at Atkinson. He ran the ice house with ice from his dam. Life was great!

"On Mar. 25, 1926 Paul ran down to check his fishing lines layed out on the creek nearby. He found a huge catfish on his line and triumphantly carried his prize in the back door to show his wife. From the bedroom came the doctor, carrying the newborn child by the heels. They each held up their 'catches' for inspection, then lay them on the scales, each weighed 7 1/4 pounds! The doctor's fee was $25.00 and that fish!"

After the death of his first wife following the birth of the third child, Paul moved to Mitchell with his mother to care for the children. He returned to college, at Dakota Wesleyan, serving also as the assistant coach. On graduation he became Executive Secretary of the Mitchell YMCA until 1948 when he joined the Sioux Falls YMCA, and after 10 years went to Minneapolis as director of the downtown YMCA Health Service. He retired from the Y with 15 years of service, but went on to the European Health Spas in Minneapolis until his return to Sioux Falls in 1973. He and Lois both operated a health service (Massage) from their home in Minneapolis and also in Sioux Falls.

Child by Second Wife

04 Emery Harley, b. Mar. 17, 1932; 11-01993.

Shirley wrote this as a tribute to Mother. Mom came into the home as a new bride, with 3 tiny children to care for and a live-in mother-in-law. She bore all these new problems with love, understanding and finesse, always with a look to the brighter side of a problem or situation, and never a bad word for or about anyone. Not all of us can say the same unfortunately!

TO LOIS--MY MOM

Straight from the hand of God she came
A little bit timid, in a little bitty frame
With ability to absorb so much grief and pain

It astounded us.

She said "I do, with this ring I thee wed."
Then went home, did the dishes, swept floors, made the bed,
Tended the children, made friends all around.
It was on her love that each of us fed.
It sustained us.

Soon inlaws and family warmed to her charm
Her love so gently keeping each one from harm.
Picking up the pieces, stilling our alarm
She mended us.

It never was easy. Many days were dark
But she never noticed. She ignited a spark
In each of her children, her husband, her friends--
Even the stranger thought things not so stark
When she was there.

She showed each child his own great worth
Filling our lives with love and mirth.
To all she gave life; to one she gave birth.
We were all her's.

Fifty years have gone by, our only lament--
She was sick in body, worn and spent.
In her courage and love? Not even a dent!
Straight to the hand of God she went-- She'd kept the Faith.

I wish I had seen the gates open wide
When the Master leaned down and said "Come inside.
Well done little heroine, you've fought a good fight.
You've finished your course, now come abide.
Receive your crown!"

09-00573-08 BERNARD AUSTIN FILLMORE[10] (William[9], William[8], John[7], Jemima[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), 1039 Oregon St., Waterloo, IA 50702, born Nov. 16, 1910 at Redfield, SD; married Aug. 14, 1938 at Oconto, WI, Bernice Roberta, daughter of William Ozwald and Myrtle (Falkner) Strang, of Redfield, SD, born Mar. 22, 1910 at Redfield, SD; died Apr. 18, 1973 at Waterloo, IA (in Mar. 1973, it was reported that she was very ill with cancer), buried Apr. 20, 1973 in Memorial Park Cemetery, Waterloo, IA. Bernard Austin was Lab. Technician at University Hospital, later was a funeral home attendant for 14 yrs. until he retired, sold his home and in 1980 is living at 86 Wesley Manor, Brooksville, FL 33512; Bernice was a teacher, a member of the Cornwall Free Methodist Church and director of the church choir[304].

Bernard has A.B. degree DWU. Graduate work a SCI. Cedar Falls, IA. Wessington Springs Jr. College; John Fletcher College, IA; worked 13 yrs. in Waterloo, IA at Rath's Packing plant. Both are musicians and active in choir work.

"Her son Bob wrote in a letter to her some time before her death and spoke of the times he had seen her on her knees praying for him - her prayers and tears bothered him until he found the Lord. He said 'I believe with all my heart that I owe the experience I'm now having to Christ, but my salvation experience probably would never have taken place had it not been for a mom and dad that put first things first back when my life style was being molded'. Her daughter Donna wrote a poem in High School:

'In time of need'

His Grace is sufficient for all of my need and at times when oppressed by the deepest despair,
He will hear and answer my prayer.

He knows my frame, like a reed, and so frail
The Spirit not broken but body so ill,
And he's there by my side through the shadowy vale,
To whisper my child; "Peace be still."

Sunshine, and shadow, or dark clouds above,
My Lord knows all the reasons,
I rest in his Love. (by Donna Fillmore)

"It was so like her mother's last days it could have been Bernice's testimony. She was a sweet Christian woman - so devoted to her husband and children. Loved by all those who knew her. Especially by the five brothers-in-law and 7 sisters-in-law in Bernard's family.

"She was prayed for so much but this was one of those times when God said, No, It is enough, come up higher.

"The evening before she died, as Bernard leaned over her she kissed him and smiled. She had been in a coma most of the time and unable to speak -- She was gone the next morning at 8 A.M."

(American Association of Retired Persons) and in 1965 helped organize 'Salem Area Seniors', an organization which worked with the Salem Park and Recreation Department to finance and construct a very modern Senior Center Building that is the pride and joy of Salem Seniors."

"I remember hazily, seeing my Great Uncle David H. Fillmore when I was real young. My impression was that he was a distinguished gentleman, tall and slender, well dressed, an important man in the community and a bit stern. My mother often told, however, how kind he was to her. It seems the trains to and from Dows were scheduled at an unearthly early hour, and many times her Uncle David rose from his comfortable bed to meet mother as she was leaving or returning to grandma's farm home at Vernon Center.

"We have known for several years that Uncle David had started to write and publish a book of memoirs but that when he learned the cost and the few people interested enough to buy a copy, he gave up, put the manuscript away and it eventually came into the possession of his son, Floyd. For some reason Floyd had determined to preserve the manuscript intact during his lifetime, but due to my interest and recent inquiries about it he instructed Nadine, his daughter, to send the manuscript to me as soon as he passed away. Nadine did so and I made a copy and returned the originals to Nadine with my heartfelt thanks. Nadine, I understood was to offer the portion concerning the Civil War to the Illinois Historical Society.

"The book consisted of 116 chapters and 428 pages; the first 28 chapters and 78 pages covered David's boyhood and life up to his enlisting in the U. S. Cavalry, the rest of the book covered his life during the war, and the book ends with his return home after the war.

"David's story of his childhood and growth to manhood is interesting and contains much contemporary information that will be of interest to all the Fillmore cousins.

"David was 79 years of age when he wrote his book, and he was not sure of some of his dates, and some had been erased and re-entered. He also confused the French & Indian War with the Revolutionary War. He also mentions an older brother John, his parents' third child who died at age 21 years near Chicago. Our charts all fail to show John."

Some chapters have been included in Volume II and others will be interspersed in other volumes, beginning with volume VI, as space is available.

"David H. Fillmore, Autobiography, Preface"

"It has often been said to me by members of my family and many of my associates, that I ought to write a book. And this request has therefore led me to meditate and dig up as it were, the many checkered incidents and reminiscences of my life. And the question has often occurred to me, 'Would a true story of my career on earth be of general benefit to the average boy and girl, as well as the more mature reader?' And as I have concluded to write a book as near the truth as a story of one's life can be told, I will therefore leave it to the reader as he or she peruses these tales, to judge for themselves as to its moral worth.

Chapter One

"I, David H. Fillmore, was born on the banks of the Marimishi River, in New Brunswick, on the 26th day of May, 1839, of English, Welsh, and Dutch parentage; and father was a direct descendant of the 'Johns' in the Fillmore family of Captain John Fillmore, of Norwich, Conn. Capt. John Fillmore of Norwich, was my great-great-grandfather, and has a historical legend in connection with his life which may be of some interest to the readers of this story. I will try to give it to the reader as I have often heard my father relate the story to his family, and as I read it in a historical volume, at the home of A. G. Greene, while a member of his family at Topeka, Kansas, in 1860.

"Capt. John Fillmore, in the year 1699, was the master of a merchant vessel running from Boston, Mass. to Liverpool, England, and when but two days out from Boston, was captured by Capt. Kidd. Kidd was one of the most notorious pirates that ever sailed the seas -- not even Gibbs surpasses him in cruelty to his captives. Kidd made all the 22 men on Fillmore's ship walk the plank except the Captain. He kept him because of his usefulness as a ship carpenter and calker, and with the hope of persuading Fillmore to become one of his crew. Fillmore was therefore placed in irons and cast into the hold of the ship, and for four days, Kidd visited him, making overtures to have him join them, but to no avail. Fillmore would rather suffer death than be swerved from the line of his duty to his God and country: than yield to dishonor by the threats of his enemy or the cajoling of Capt. Kidd's promises.

"However, on the fourth day, Kidd captured another merchant vessel, and every man on board was put to death, and the ship scuttled and sunk, after securing its desirable merchandise. Among the goods thus secured, were three casks of English rum, which they rolled into the hold of the ship; and Capt. Kidd and all his men, but his pilot, went below to banquet and make merry. Kidd told Fillmore, that he would give him one more opportunity to join them and live, or refuse and die. Fillmore requested to be allowed to go on deck and meditate over which he should do while they were banqueting below, and Kidd allowed him to go with his feet and hands shackled in chains.

"Fillmore, on reaching the deck of the ship, discovered a chest of ship-carpenter's tools, with a large broad-ax lying on the lid of the chest, at the door of the hold, and a mariner's hand spike leaning against the chest. And it was then he looked up to Him, from whence cometh the Christian's help, and said, 'Father, this is my hour of need. Help Thou me to liberty and life, for humanity and Christ's sake', and shouted 'hello' to the pilot, and the pilot said 'Hello, Fillmore, come over here.' And Fillmore said, 'How can I when I am in irons?' And the pilot said, 'You can hop over with that hand-spike lying against the tool chest', and with that he picked up the hand-spike and hopped over to the pilot, and immediately knocked him overboard. Then it was that he flew with all his might and main to the hatchway and got the big broad-ax from the lid of the tool chest, and wielded it, as did Sampson the jaw bone of an ass, until seven men lay dead in the hatchway, and many others wounded.

"It was then that he fastened down the hatchway and locked them in, and took the helm, and with his own shackled hands steered the ship, and in twenty-four hours after being permitted to go on deck, ran the vessel, with a cargo worth half a million dollars, and Capt. Kidd with all his crew, except the pilot, into Boston Harbor. For this act of daring and bravery, history tells us that Boston tendered Captain Fillmore a vote of thanks and one hundred thousand dollars and the captured ship to take the place of the one he had lost by Capt. Kidd. They also presented him with a gold headed cane, with date and incident of this capture stamped upon the head. This cane was to come down to the Johns in the Fillmore family, and it continued with my fathers family until 1866, when by some unaccountable means to us all, it disappeared forever.

"Capt. John Fillmore lived to the ripe old age of ninety years, and was gathered to his fathers, leaving one son named John, who was a wheelwright by profession, in his home town of Norwich, Connecticut. He had three sons, John, William, and Rufus; all three of them participating in the Revolutionary War for the independence of the colonies, and after Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown, Virginia, Rufus Fillmore settled in Indiana, William at Buffalo, New York; and John Fillmore emigrated, with his young family, over into the Province of New Brunswick and settled near Fredericton, the capital of the Province, about twenty five miles from the Bay of Fundy.

Chapter Two
The Historical and Geographical description of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia combined.

"New Brunswick is a Province of the Dominion of Canada. It is bounded on the northeast by the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the Straits of Northumberland; on the South by Nova Scotia and the Bay of Fundy; and on the southwest by the State of Maine; and the northwest by Canada. It has an area of 27322 square miles or 17,686,000 acres of land. The Province of New Brunswick abounds in rivers, creeks and lakes. The principal rivers being the St. Croix, St. John and Mirimichi. The St. Croix River is 480 miles long. All of them abound in fish of the finest quality, such as cod, haddock, and salmon, and other fish are caught in great abundance. The forests of pine, cedar, and spruce supply timber for export and ship-building purposes, and is one of the chief sources of wealth. The chief towns of New Brunswick are St. John and Fredericton, the last named being the capital of the province and situated on the St. John River."

Chapter III joins Chapter II and continues in Volume II with Chapter IV starting on page 409, and ending just before the last paragraph, on page 411.

Chapter V, The Story of the Marimishi fire and its terrible, devastating results may be in a later volume.

He is a retired military and administrator, State of Alaska, retired 1976 and presently, 1981, is a commercial fisherman in Alaska, as is his wife, keeping them busy from May through September every year in open ocean.

The following story was written by Jim G. Lucas, U.S. Marine Corps, of Tulsa, OK:

"Somewhere in the South Pacific, June 5 (delayed)-Second Lieutenant Glenn L. Byington, U. S. C., Philomath, OR, has been complimented by his commanding officer of this South Pacific base for his part in keeping open an aerial 'Burma road' of supplies to Henderson field during the battle for the Solomons.

"The saga of his air group has been officially described by Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., U.S.N., as 'an example of courage and skill.'

"Lieutenant Byington is the son of Mrs. Erma Byington of Philomath.

"Colonel P.K. Smith, commander of a marine aircraft group in the South Pacific, said that Lieutenant Byington showed 'outstanding heroism in the line of his profession while operating in the Solomon Islands area'."

Also this was supplied by Glenn's sister, Erma Robbins, to be included in his record for the Tingley Family History. Glenn L. Byington, Director of Fiscal and Facilities Division of the U. S. Army National Guard in Alaska, has been promoted to the rank of colonel, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Erma Byington-Wooster, formerly of Philomath and now living in Corvallis.

"Colonel Byington is headquartered in Juneau, Alaska, where he has been stationed since 1960 with the National Guard. He is a graduate of Philomath High School. He attended Oregon State University 3 1/2 years and earned his degree from Gunison College in Colorado after serving during W.W. II with the U.S. Marine Corps. While at OSU, Byington played varsity football and was a member of the 1942 Rose Bowl team, which defeated Duke University in Durham, NC.

"On Nov. 4, Col. Byington received the Army Commendation Medal during ceremonies held in Anchorage, Alaska. He was cited for outstanding work during rescue operations for a commercial aircraft which crashed and resulted in the deaths of 111 persons aboard.

"Col. Byington also has two brothers living in this area -- Wayne Byington of Corvallis and Kenneth Byington of Lebanon."

ONE TALENT

I have no voice for singing
I cannot make a speech
I have no gift for music
I know I cannot teach
I am no good for leading
I cannot organize -
And anything I write would Never win a prize.
But at rollcall in a meeting
I always answer "here".
When others are performing
I lend a listening ear.
After the program is over
I praise its every part.
My words are not to flatter,
I meant them from the heart.
It seems my only talent - is neither
Big nor rare; just to listen and Encourage, and fill a vacant chair -
But, all the gifted people could not
So brightly shine - Were it not for those Who use - A talent such as mine.

09-00612-08 ALBERT EDWARD SILLIKER[10] (Charlotte[9], Albert[8], Agreen[7], Jemima[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Calgary, Alberta, born Sep. 19, 1896 at Port Elgin, West. Co., N. B.; died Mar. 20, 1974 at Calgary, Alta., buried in Union Cem., Calgary, Alta.; married first Mar. 2, 1938 at Great Falls, MT, Agnes Evelyn, daughter of John and Marie (Sharhow) Bruchall, of , Poland, born Aug. 16, 1900 at Edmondton, Alta.; divorced; married second, Preston Bruner, widow with children: Peter Charles, John Douglas and Loraine Bruner-Hepburn.

Albert was a mining pioneer and oil man who worked in harvest fields at Waldeck, Sask., and in ranching in 1921. The same year, he moved to Calgary, where he and his brother Bill owned and operated the Alberta Transfer and Cartage business, for several years.

After a short time as a roughneck at Turner Valley, Mr. Silliker and a partner drilled the Gold Coin Oil Well on the Stoney Reserve at Morley. He also drilled test holes for a coal mining company on the outskirts of Drumheller and for oil on the Blood Reserve near Lethbridge.

After working as a diamond driller, he went into the oil business and leased many potential oil rights. He prospected, and his options that proved productive include Leduc Wells of Continental Oils, South Brazeau and East Leduc. The discovery of Savannah Creek oil and gas field and the South Area of Turner Valley Field are due to his efforts.

Mr. Silliker was one of the first Calgarians to adopt the white hat, and for 12 years he and his family rode in the Stampede Parade[216]. Albert E. Silliker was an oil and mine operator, President and managing director, Highland Glen Mines Ltd. (NPL).

05 Norman, b. 1962;
d. 1965, in fire.

Provincial fire marshal E. J. Sturgeon testified that a deep-fryer was found on the kitchen floor with the largest of the electric elements turned on high heat. He said a fire arising from ignition of grease, fat or oil in the fryer would create intense heat and poisonous gases and no one could survive for long in the house under those conditions.

The two older children, 10 yr. old Donald and 8 yr. old Robin, escaped through a second story window after they were awakened by Peter Brown, a neighbor.

The youth shimmied up one of two iron pipes at the front of the house to a canopy, awakened the children by shouting and helped Donald and Robin through the window. The boy jumped to safety after reaching the canopy and the girl slid down the pipe.

The three children who died were frightened away from the windows after bystanders smashed windows on the ground floor, sending smoke and flames up the side of the building.

Fire Chief Cecil G. Wood praised Brown's determination and heroism and said all five children would have been saved if the first floor windows had not been broken.

Mrs. Carter was away from home at work when the fire broke out about 2 A.M.

Firemen found Carter's body near a chesterfield on the ground floor. The bodies of two of the boys were on the floor in one upstairs bedroom and the body of the third boy in another upstairs bedroom. Mr. Carter was a corporal in Royal Canadian Army stationed at Camp Gagetown.

"J.W.L. (Bill) Dixon, long active in community and sports circles at Sussex, has retired after a record of 46 years of continuous employment with the express freight department of the Canadian National Railways. His warm and friendly personality won him many lasting friendships through his long period of duties, which necessitated almost daily visits to business establishments and homes in the Sussex area.

"His long service with the CNR began when he was only 18 years of age, at his native town of Sackville. He served in various capacities there and then was a member of the train staff on the run between Sackville and Borden, P. E. I. In 1931 he was transferred to Sussex, and since had served as express motorman. He recalls delivering freight and express in Sussex with a horse and wagon, then a common mode of transport. It wasn't until 1939 that the CNR used trucks in its operations.

"Mr. Dixon first became active in sports in the late 1940's and early 1950's, when he served as secretary of the Sussex Junior Rangers hockey club, an outstanding junior team in the Maritime Provinces at that time. He was elected president of the Sussex Minor Hockey Association, when it was founded in 1957 and is now in his 9th year as chief executive of the organization. It has enjoyed steady growth under his guidance. His interest in minor hockey has earned him the name of 'Mr. Minor Hockey' in Sussex." (A newspaper item at time of his retirement.)

S. (Her father Feb. 25, 1867 - Sep. 29, 1938 and her mother Oct. 8, 1866 - Dec. 15, 1933.) No children by either marriage.

After graduating from Horton Academy in Wolfville, George W. Tingley entered Tufts College, Boston, where in 1906 he received a Doctor of Medical Dentistry Degree. After practicing in Boston for 12 years he returned to Canada at the outbreak of W. W. I, to join the Canadian Dental Corps at Camp Hill Hospital. After the war, he went into the automobile business in Halifax, having the franchise for Cadillac, Buick, and Pontiac. He had learned that he was required to write the Provincial Board of Examinations in order to practice dentistry in Nova Scotia, which he declined to do. In 1941 he went to Ottawa and under the Hon. C. D. Howe served in the Department of Munitions and Supply during W. W. II, after which George sold his business and retired in 1945. In later years, he devoted his time and energy to fund campaigns. He was a 50-year member of the Halifax Club and the Halifax Curling Club.

Over the years Mr. Tingley was responsible for raising funds on behalf of the Children's Hospital, an institution he had been associated with for over a quarter of a century. He was also the chairman of several financial campaigns and helped raise additional funds for Acadia University, the Salvation Army, the Community Chest, the St. John Ambulance Association, Cancer Society, Red Cross, etc. It has been said "For energy, for putting everything into a campaign, Mr. Tingley has no equal." A successful business man, he was also in the forefront in sports activities and promoted many clubs of championship calibre over the years. His love of sport traced back to when he was actively associated with the Boston Red Sox of the Am. Baseball League. He was interred in the Fairview Cemetery.

In January 1972, Winifred stated that "George has been in the hospital for nine weeks and now is in a nursing home. He has had several strokes and is not able to communicate.

"He has been a wonderful man and has had a very colorful life. People used to urge him to write about all the things he had enjoyed. During his college days he was a scout for the Boston Red Socks, earned his way through college by driving the first taxi cabs in Boston, playing trumpet in Keith's Theatre, working in the Boston Athletic Club, etc."

09-00684-01 MARJORIE ELOISE HOEG-WATSON[10] (Margaret[9], Obed[8], John[7], William[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Sun City, AZ, born Jan. 26, 1905 at Amherst, N.S.; died Nov. 30, 1978 at Sun City, AZ, in a nursing home, spinal meningitis with attendant lung cancer; married Apr.

2, 1927 at Brookline, MA, Gavin, son of Thomas Willson and Mary Clemens (Way) Watson, of Brookline, MA, born Nov. 6, 1899 at Bryn Mawr, PA, he was a professional electrical engineer. The family moved to Boston, MA during W. W. I and Marjorie graduated from Brookline High School in 1921 with honors. After working as an actress with a small stock company, and as a comptometer operator with Aetna Life Insurance Company, she married in 1927 Gavin Watson of Germantown, PA. Mr. Watson had recently obtained his B S.G.E. degree from Masachusetts Institute of Technology in 1924, and was working for the Otis Elevator Co. in New York City. They moved to Ossining, NY in 1938.

Mrs. Watson was intensely active in civic organizations, being president of the Roosevelt School PTA, president of the Ossining PTA council, Assistant Director and Secretary of the Westchester County PTA, organizer and chairman of the first Community Chest X-Ray program in Ossining, co-vice-chairman of the Operating Fund Drive for Phelps Memorial Hospital, member of the Boards of the Ossining Children's Center, the Westchester County S. P. C. A., and the Ossining Historical Society, a Cub Scout Den Mother, and organizer of the local Mental Hygiene Committee, Assistant Feeding Chief of the Welfare Division of local Civil Defense, the Steering Committee of the Ossining High School Parents' Group, President of the Sussex Chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire, and active in the Briarcliff chapter of the League of Woman Voters. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Unitarian Church of the Larger Fellowship. She served on the Ossining Board of Education from 1950 to 1959 and, on the sudden death of the Board chairman, was offered his post, which she declined since her many other commitments left her insufficient time to devote what she considered to be necessary to the position.

Mr. Watson, after serving as assistant to the Chief Engineer at Otis, during which time he published many studies of elevator safety and traffic, aided in the development of the automatic elevator system, and the National Elevator Safety Code, became Director of Research and Development at Otis in 1960. After his retirement in 1964, he and Mrs. Watson moved to Sun City, AZ. At last report, Gavin Watson was in the nursing home there.

Child

01 David Russell, b. June 30, 1936, Mount Kisco, NY; unm.

David wrote of his mother as follows: "Mother was one of the sweetest, most thoughtful persons I have ever known, with plenty of common sense and a pixyish sense of humor which helped her preserve her sense of balance and proportion in all the decisions she had to make. One of the reasons for her commitments was that she could rarely turn down a request for assistance for any good cause, yet she never failed to give instant, intelligent and sensitive attention to all her family's needs. Her final months were a sickening commentary on the price love must pay to age. She is (I hope) reading this and realizing that she is appreciated -- even more, when we are deprived of her warmth and thoughtfulness. It is a study in accidental and intentional neglect." David Watson's address is 300 North Broadway, Apt. 7K, Yonkers, NY 10701.

B., Hildegarde, daughter of the late William Woodbury and Ella Jane (Turner) Wells, of Port Elgin, N.B., born Feb. 21, 1894 at Port Elgin, N.B.

Lt. Col. L.T. Tingley, M.B.E., M.M., took office as City Clerk Treasurer Oct. 13, 1934, after service in Canadian Army and with the Intercolonial - Canadian National Railways and the Canadian Pacific Railways.

Upon completion of Moncton Business College courses in 1908, young Tingley then joined the staff of the I. C. R. in James T. Dustan's Dept.; later transferred to Provident Fund of Can. Gov. Railways.

In 1913, he left the P.F. Office and became private secretary to Gen. Supt. of Motive Power & Car Equipment, Western Lines, Can. Pac. Rwys. at Winnipeg.

He enlisted in Canadian Army, Oct. 24, 1914 with 27th (City of Winnipeg) Battalion, serving with it until Mar. 1916, when he was transferred on organization of Can. Machine Gun Corps, serving with the 6th Brigade M. Gun Co., in all the non-com ranks, and at the famous Battle of Hill 70. He was awarded the military medal, British. In March, 1918, he was sent to England to qualify for his commission, and with the rank of Lieutenant he returned to France and Belgium Sep. 10, 1918, and took part in the final battles which led to the Nov. 11th armistice.

Col. Tingley was demobilized in Saint John after the war and served with Can. Nat. Rwys. in Moncton, in office of Assist. Regional Chief Engineer, W.A. Duff. In 1920 he served with C.P.R. at Calgary for 1 year. Later, Col. Tingley returned to C. N. R. at Moncton in office of Gen. Passenger Agent. The last post with railway was in office of the Regional Chief Engineer which he held until he was appointed City Clerk. For his services in the various civilian wartime organizations, Col. Tingley was honored by being appointed by King George VI, July 1, 1946, a member of the most excellent Order of the British Empire. He is a retired City Clerk-Administrator of the City of Moncton, N.B. - retired in 1956, and more recently was the first town clerk-treasurer of the new town of Oromocto, N. B. - retired in 1961.

Hildegarde's father was born at Upper Point de Bute, N.B. in 1861 and died Jan. 5, 1901 at Ste. Agathe, P.Q. at a sanatorium while a resident of Port Elgin, N.B. and a member of the Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick. Harry works for Imperial Oil Ltd.; Ethel is a teacher.

The following poems are by Harry:

In the Still of the Night

In the still of the night
When you're all alone
There's a love that comes
And it's not your own

Don't be afraid
Just let Him in
He's not a ghost
But your best friend

When you played your last card
And think you have lost
Don't be afraid
Let God be the boss

"This poem was written in Holyland. I'm sure I had help. My first poem."

O God I wonder Why

O God I wonder why
Those lovely stars are in the sky
I'm sure you put them there
To let man know you really care

And yet man is so weak
He doesn't know what he's to seek
If he would stop awhile to pray
I'm sure God would show him the way

And not wonder all alone
And be mixed up on his own
And listen to what God will say
And surely find a better way

"I wrote this while visiting the Holyland. Thank you for sharing it."

For All The World To See

I'm going to write this little poem
It's just for you and me
And this little poem
Is for all the world to see

We all have our moments
To sit and rest awhile
And try to face up to life
And try to keep our smile

We try to go back over the years
And often wonder why
We could have been kinder
With some people if we tried

But with life the pressures
Often block the way
And sometime so often

The wrong words we do say

But one thing I know
Is to let God have His say
And let Him be the judge
And guide us on our way

The Day Is Over

As the sun sinks in the west
It's getting late it's time for rest
We sure had a busy day
Thank God it's over let's hit the hay

A brand new day is ahead
To plan and try to get ahead
But sometimes things don't come our way
We make mistakes we have to pay

And as we make our plans
To do the very best we can
It doesn't always work our way
This is the time we must be brave

I wonder when God makes his plans
He likes to check us if He can
To see if we are doing right
So we can win our day's fight

God's Share

He is not going to settle
For half or settle for less
He's only going to settle
He wants your best

They nailed Him to the cross
But He wasn't afraid
Because He knew He had to die
For all our sakes

But something happened
He rose from the dead
And this is where it's great
To save us all instead

Almost two thousand years have passed
And it is still the same

He died to save us
So don't make Him the blame

Don't Be Afraid

Don't be afraid when God's in your heart
Because He knows you will do your part
And say all the things He wants you to say
And not always wanting your own way

It's not always easy when you're alone
And on your own to be tested and known
For this is the way God makes you strong
To stand on your feet and walk alone

And sometimes when I'm feeling low
I'm sure God comes to let me know
I'm really not at my best
This is the time to let God give the test

From the Moncton Daily Times, June 4, 1968:

"The appointment of Stephen E. Trueman to the position of area director, Moncton office of the Unemployment Insurance Commission was announced by G.F. Lawson, Regional Director, Atlantic Region.

"Prior to his present appointment, Mr. Trueman was manager of the Moncton local office.

"Under the Commission's reorganization program, a number of offices were closed. The area served by these offices has been taken over by the newly established area office which now covers Westmorland, Albert, Kent, and Northumberland counties, and the Magdale Islands, giving the area director added duties and responsibilities.

"Mr. Trueman began his employment with the Unemployment Insurance Commission in 1945 at the regional office, Moncton, following his release from the RCAF where he served for a period of five years. In 1950 he was appointed to the position of insurance officer at the Moncton local office and in 1958 returned to regional office in a supervisory capacity.

"In 1961 he was appointed manager of the Woodstock local office and in 1963 was promoted to manager at Saint John. He returned to Moncton as manager of the local office in 1966.

"Prior to joining the Unemployment Insurance Commission, Mr. Trueman was in business for himself. He also held several positions in private industry.

"Mr. Trueman has always been active in community affairs and is a member of a number of organizations. In 1967 he was awarded the Centennial Medal for his service to the nation."

From his obit: "He attended the United Church of Canada, was a past member of the Board of Trade, and past member of the Rotary Club.

"He served with the Royal Canadian Air Force from 1940 to 1945 where he earned the rank of Flight Sergeant and was a member of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 6, Moncton."

As published in the Weekly Gazette Times, Nov. 20, 1911:

"Hathaway and Prather Machine Shop Burned"

"Hathaway and Prather Company's big blacksmithing, machine and wood-working shop at the corner of Second and Adams Streets was badly damaged and the machinery, tools and stock destroyed by fire which broke out on the premises at about 3 o'clock this morning.

"The fire was discovered by a member of Otto Hathaway's family who lives in the rooms above the garage. Every effort was made to extinguish it before the fire department arrived, but without avail. Mr. Hathaway, as was his usual custom, made the rounds of the garage and shops at 1:30 this morning and found everything apparently all right. When he was called at 3 o'clock and told there was a fire somewhere near he discovered the upper part of the wood-working establishment, above the rear of the machine shop, all ablaze. So rapidly did the dry stock burn that it was not possible to get the heavy machinery out.

"The total loss to building, machinery, tools and stock will foot up about $8,000, on which there was no insurance.

"It is the intention of the company to rebuild the shop at once, the new walls to be concrete and the roof to be made fireproof. New machinery and all necessary tools have been ordered to replace those destroyed and in a short time the establishment will be again in complete working order, on a larger scale than before."

09-00564-08 CHARLOTTE (LOTTIE) JANE CHANDLER-LONG[10] (Priscilla[9], Charlotte[8], John[7], Jemima[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of , born June 29, 1874 at Miami Co., KS; died Sep. 4, 1969, aged 95 yrs., at ; married Nov. 2, 1902 at Allen, KS, William (Hemp) Hampton, son of and ( ) Long, of , born May 30, 1866 at ; died Oct. 5, 1913, aged 47 yrs., at Stillwater, OK. Hemp had a daughter Orpha Long, b. Aug. 31, 1893, Everton, MO, who married Dorsey Lee John, b. Feb. 28, 1883, d. June 1922. They were married Jan. 22, 1912 at San Bernadino, CA by Mark W. San, Chaplin of the 7th Infantry. He is buried in Rosedale Cem., Los Angeles, CA.

It was in the year 1874 on June 19th that a baby girl was born to George W. Chandler and his wife Hannah Priscilla, in a small cabin on the eastern prairies of Miami County, Kansas. They gave her the name of Charlotte Jane Chandler. A name that had been thought of and chosen long before she arrived. Seemingly the older children found it hard to pronounce such a lengthy name, so they shortened it to just plain "Lottie", the name that most people knew her by all her life.

About seven years later Lottie's father picks up his little brood of twelve children and migrates to Lyon Co. and settles in the Bushong community. This was where Lottie grew up with her brothers and sisters experiencing many hardships of little food to feed twelve hungry children and cold winters with not much warm clothing. With the true love of a large pioneer family together they grew to manhood and womanhood, and each went out into the world gaining a name for themselves, as real hard working Americans.

Lottie grew up to be a beautiful young woman and was always called the life of the party wherever she was. Lottie went to work at the age of eighteen in Emporia in several merchants' homes as housekeeper. She always shared her weekly wage of $2 (two dollars) with the children yet at home.

She looked forward to having a loving husband and a beautiful home and as a girl in those days sewed most of her clothing and house linens, she worked many long hours on sewing carpet rags for a rug, when it was finished it measured 9 x 12, a masterpiece to be proud of.

At the age of twenty-eight she was married to William Hampton Long Nov. 2, 1902 in Allen, Kansas.

Early in the spring of 1903 they were both so anxious and happy to go to their first new home, a little island on the Kaw river not far from Topeka. Soon after, the spring rains and floods came flooding the island and everything on it. Lottie and her husband escaped by ferry to the mainland.

After the flood waters had gone down, they decided to go back to the little island to see if there might be anything to salvage. The only thing that was found was the hayrack standing on end with the rag carpet strings wound in and around the tynes of the hayrack.

After ten years of happy marriage and with three sweet children, Lottie's husband died October 5, 1913 in Stillwater, OK, at the age of forty-seven years.

To rear three children without a husband was not an easy thing to do for any woman. With Lottie's pioneer spirit and love for her children, and faith in God she reared two boys and one daughter who returned the same love and duty to her as long as she lived.

Lottie's greatest aim in life was to Do unto others as ye would have them do to you. Her thoughtfulness of others often called for a sacrifice on her part which she was glad to do. Her motto for living was "Live by Faith, Hope, and Love" and live it day after day. She was a wonderful and devoted mother. She loved her home wherever it chanced to be and she longed to go to her heavenly home that her God had prepared for her.

In spite of her busy life of work, she had a happy nature and always could see laughter and make laughter in any conversation.

Her beloved bible verse was Psalm 23 -- The Lord is my Shepherd, because the scripture covered all the needs and wants of any human being.

God called her to His beautiful home on the 4th of Sep., 1969 at the age of ninety-five.

All those that knew Lottie can rest assured that God has placed upon her head a crown of love and called her blessed mother.

HOME

I have always wanted a beautiful home. My idea of a home is beauty and happiness, both inside and outside. The days have never been long enough nor I never have been too tired to still want to do something about the home, or for some of my loved ones in the home. But owing to finances, health, and the misfortune of losing my companion early, I am still striving for that home. And now as I sit unable to do much I can gaze in the distance and see a Beautiful Home. A home not made with hands, but a home eternal in the heavens. And I am satisfied and have the assurance that my work and effort here on earth has not been in vain, that it is a part of the material in this beautiful home, that God has prepared for those that love him and now as I have fought the good fight and kept the faith, I am ready and waiting to dwell in this Beautiful home with my God and my loved ones, Mother, Mrs. Lottie Long.

09-00564-12 HANNAH PRISCILLA CHANDLER-SANDER[10] (Priscilla[9], Charlotte[8], John[7], Jemima[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of , born Mar. 12, 1881 near Bushong, in old stone house in Lyon Co., KS; died Oct. 12, 1968 at Loma Linda, CA, stroke, buried in Montecita Mem. Park at Loma Linda, CA; married , 1898 at , Charles Augustus, son of and ( ) Sander, of , born Jan. 8, 1861 at ; died Jan. , 1936 at Chicago, IL, heart failure, buried at Allen, KS.

Hannah married at the age of seventeen and her husband was almost twenty years older than she. He had five boys, the youngest was Hugh, aged two, and the oldest Leonard, aged sixteen. The boys and Laura and Virgil were born in Allen, KS. They moved to Kiowa where Josephine was born and while she was still a baby the family moved to Greeley, CO, where they lived for about seven years. The stepbrothers married during these years except Hugh who was too young to marry. Charles was manager of a lumber yard in Greeley. He took a job as manager in Hutchinson, KS. They lived there several years. Virgil enlisted in the army and was sent to the Hawaiian Islands. A short time later we had World War I and Hugh enlisted and went to France. Charles then took a job in Wheatland, IA, where they lived until he retired.

While in Greeley, Hannah became a dedicated Christian and church worker and continued to be until her health no longer permitted her to, which was in her late seventies.

Hannah's greatest achievement was to establish a small church in Chicago's Southside. During that time Josephine attended the Moody Bible Institute and so was able to help in the work of the little church. The church was later able to hire a pastor and Hannah gave up her work there as Charles' health was failing and he soon passed away in Chicago. Except for a few short intervals Hannah lived the rest of her life with Josephine except the last two years which were spent in Convalescent hospitals.

In the meantime, during World War II, Josephine had divorced John Willard and married William McCoy and moved to California, to the desert near Death Valley where Hannah and Josephine established a small Sunday School as there was no church or Sunday School of any kind nearer than two hundred miles. A doctor was two hundred miles away and Hannah had a very serious sick spell in which they barely made it to the doctor in time, so as this frightened them so much they decided to move. They moved to San Bernardino and later to Rialto, a few miles away where we spent most of our lives, while Hannah lived with Josephine.

They all joined the Christian church there and Hannah was very active and happy in that little church, until her health failed. Even when she had to go to a convalescent hospital she helped patients go to the religious services who were in wheel chairs until at last she could no longer get around herself. Hannah had so many friends all her life because she spent her whole life trying to help others[456].

(Dumond) Chase, of Sedgwick, ME, born Oct. 11, 1921 at Milford, MA. William is a Master Mariner pilot, holding a license as Master Mariner and First Class pilot for South Eastern and South Western Alaska, Puget Sound and adjacent waters and San Francisco Bay. He was previously employed as Master (or Captain) on various vessels of the Puget Sound Freight Lines fleet out of Seattle.

On April 1, 1967 moved to Alaska and has since lived at Homer, AK 99603 (Box No. 1237). He and another captain formed "Homer Pilots". They were ship pilots bringing ships from the Homer pilot station to various ports in Cook Inlet. Later, as they grew, six of the pilots formed Southwest Alaska Pilots Association, with William being the first president and later senior pilot. They pilot from Cape Spencer to all ports north and west of there. It is the largest pilotage area in the world. It covers three time zones. Homer, AK is their main pilot station. They also take care of all the tanker trade in the Port of Valdez, AK. They now (1982) have twenty pilots, nearly all of whom live in Homer.

On May 17, 1968 he was divorced from M. Elizabeth and married second May 23, 1968 at Homer Methodist Church, Homer, AK, Wilema Alice (Mrs. Wilema Alice Matthews), daughter of William and Ellen (Crawford) Rutherford, born Mar. 6, 1927 at Birch Creek, Blackfeet Reservation, Pondora Co., MT. Willie's parents are 1/2 Blackfeet and 1/2 Scotch, trappers and fur traders. 09-00736-08 RICHARD OWEN TINGLEY[10] (Blake[9], Joshua[8], Joshua[7], William[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), 330 S. Highland Dr., Kennewick, WA 99336, born Apr. 2, 1930 at Attleboro, MA; married Dec. 13, 1952 at Tonasket, WA, Eva Mae, daughter of James Arthur and Sarah Valina (Cole) Johnson, of Tonasket, WA, born July 26, 1929 at Tonasket, WA. Richard is an accountant.

From daughter Muriel (Jan. 6, 1975):

My father lived in Attleboro, MA until the age of thirteen. At that time he moved to Vashon Island in WA with his family. At the age of fourteen he had a job driving a tractor. He left home at the age of fifteen and went to live with Ray and Nona Wilson in Chewilikan Valley, Okanogan County, WA. My father came into contact with the Wilsons through a neighbor on Vashon, but he had not met them before he went to Okanogan. Ray and Nona Wilson were my mother's Aunt and Uncle.

My father attended Riverside High School while living in Okanogan and graduated from there in 1949 with a blank diploma. The graduating class consisted of seven people.

After high school he sailed for a while. He was a A. B. seaman and sailed a route that went from Seattle to Japan and Korea.

Dad joined the Army in May, 1951. He passed the G. E. D. examination at Fort Belvoir, VA that year. On April 11, 1952 his hands were damaged in Korea. Most of his fingers were partially destroyed. His left thumb is completely missing. Late in 1952 he was retired at the rank of Corporal.

On December 13, 1952, he married my mother, Eva Mae Johnson. They made their home in Seattle, WA.

From 1954 to 1957, Dad attended Griffen-Murphy Business College. My father worked for the Boeing Company for about thirteen years. Dad passed his C. P. A. examination in May, 1961. We transferred down south with the Boeing Company and lived in New Orleans and Slidell, LA, and Huntsville, AL. We returned to WA in 1966.

In 1971, my father went to work for Jacobsen and Jentzsch, a private accounting firm in Walla Walla, WA.

In 1973, we moved to Kennewick, WA, where we are living at this time. Dad is the chief accountant for the Benton County Public Utility District. He also is a member of the Washington Society of Certified Public Accountants, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Wash. State Grange, VFW, lifetime member of DAV, and TU.

MEMORIAL
DORINE WRAY
died 7 December 1983

She is gone; now the winds have carried her away.
Her spirit clings as close as is the air we breathe -
Her body is as distant as the farthest star
That eye can see, or mind can comprehend.

The vital cord has broken,
Life, and its many duties, ended.
Energy, thinking, hoping, planning,
And love, which mingles subtle soul and body
In secret thought and facile dancing feet,
Are now complete and final -
Nothing more will come.

The harvest has been reaped,
The seed for which was sown
The hour that she was born.

Ruth married second Aug. 6, 1966 at Salvation Army Citadel in No. Battleford, Sask., Philip Andrew, son of Alfred Owen and Annie (Andrew) Hawkins, of Maymont, Sask., born Feb. 24, 1920 at Maymont, Sask. Philip had an adopted son, Ronald George, born Apr. 14, 1958 at Saskatoon, Sask.

Ruth did field work with the Salvation Army in 1938-39, then, after a lengthy illness, was on the sanatorium nursing staff at Fort Out Appelle, Sask. before her marriage. Due to a serious heart condition Henry, who was a salesman, had to retire in 1956. Ruth went to Teachers College in Moose Jaw in 1957 and taught afterward. Henry had successful heart surgery and recovered nicely, thus prolonging life for a time.

Following Ruth's second marriage she gave up teaching for a while, but went back to it again, teaching a class of handicapped children, whom she learned to understand and love. Later, in 1970, Philip accepted a job as stationary steam engineer and they moved to Saskatoon, thus ending Ruth's teaching career.

Ride for Life Dedicated to Bill Tingley

Jim Eppen and Natalie Rostad, organizers of the "Terry Fox Ride for Life" held Saturday, Sep. 22, have dedicated it to 69-year-old Bill Tingley, who died of a heart attack barely a mile from the end of the ride, which was held to raise funds for cancer research. He was rushed to the Battleford Union Hospital by the ambulance which accompanied the riders, but apparently died in transit.

Bill had just left the hospital Thursday, two days before the ride. He was determined to ride for his son, Jimmy, who died of leukemia six years ago. Bill "had open-heart surgery about ten years ago, and he suffered from colostomy and cataracts and he was deaf," said Dale O'Grady, who had employed Mr. Tingley as gardener. "But he was really a kind-hearted person and even with his illnesses, he still wanted to help other people," he said.

"Bill said he would ride if it killed him and ironically that's what happened. It was his last journey in his son's name and we now believe that he would have wanted it that way. The doctors have assured us the ride may have hastened his death, but did not cause it," said Mr. Eppen.

"Bill has been nominated for the Johny D. Award which Terry Fox won June 18, 1981. The award was established in memory of John David Burke, Georgetown University football star," said Mr. Eppen. The annual award goes to an individual who exemplifies virtues of courage, honor and love in the fight against cancer.

Fortified by a hearty breakfast of pancakes and sausage, some 75 horsemen participated in the 20 km. ride from the exhibition grounds to the Saskatchewan Hospital grounds and back - cut short because of the weather.

Although riders came from many outlying communities, it was evident that Bill Tingley was the oldest rider to volunteer, and a special plaque had been prepared for presentation following the ride. Bill was special for another reason - he was totally deaf. Although able to speak clearly with full inflection, to talk to him required a visual means of communication. Most people wrote short notes.

Mr. Tingley hailed from Hatherley, where he had farmed before moving to North Battleford. "He really loved the farm," said Mr. O'Grady. "Horses were one of his great interests."

Mr. Tingley was the second child in a family of four, according to his sister, Mrs. Amelia Taylor of Saskatoon.

(Randall) Foote, of Merigomish, N.S., born Sep. 24, 1928 at Merigomish, Picton Co., N. S. Ralph is a farmer. Ralph and Emeline cared for a foster child, Elaine Bowser.

"Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oulton and family spent some time and effort last week to make their visiting interesting for Elizabeth and Simone Tunselie of the Amsterdam area of Holland, who are visiting Mr. Oulton's niece, Elaine Bowser, at the Oulton home here.

"The girls were taken on trips to points of interest, including Fort Beausejour, Magnetic Hill, Mount Allison and Tantramar Regional High School, from which Elaine and her cousin, Douglas Oulton, graduated last month, also Murray Beach and the beach at Indian Point, near historic Fort Monckton.

"A picnic outing was enjoyed one day on the grounds of Elaine's great-aunt, Mrs. Bessie Phinney at Centrevillage.

"Sunday the visitors were taken to Cape Tormentine from where they crossed by ferry to Borden to be met by friends they had visited in Halifax prior to coming to Jolicure, and with whom they will spend a few days at the beach cottage in P.E.I.

"Friday morning the Oulton home was visited by a number of boys from Holland who are visiting homes in the Sackville area, also under the student exchange plan, two of whom Douglas Oulton had visited in Holland in March."

From an article in the Moncton Timescript of March, 1969:

A Unique Family - Who's Who?

Triplets as alike as the proverbial three peas in a pod.

When triplets arrived we weren't too surprised. Our physician had told us not to be surprised if twins were on the way... As Mrs. Oulton tells in a casual way about three of her proudest possessions.

Most mothers wince at the idea of trying to cope with three impish 11-year olds although 11-year-old boys are usually the pride and joy they also cause mothers many gray hairs and to become distraught with worry and frustration, but not this mother, Mrs. Oulton.

Fred, Frank and Philip Oulton are as alike as the old proverbial three peas in a pod. True, they argue some now and then, but to the casual visitor it is an unforgettable experience attempting to keep them sorted out.

Mr. Oulton, their father, is a progressive and relatively successful farmer in the little village located high on a knoll. He says "they are my proudest accomplishment". It was natural to brag about them their first year says their mother.

The boys are typical 11-year-olds - full of energy with a love for games and fun. They none the less are well disciplined students, good natured and always willing to help with the farm chores.

Their farm is the ideal place to rear a family especially when three of their sons are the same age along with the fourth son being but two years older.

The local student minister named one of their fields "Oulton Park" since the boys usually rounded up enough friends to have a scratch baseball game, their first love. "We lost our baseball last year and hope we can find it this year."

The boys are typical fun-loving boys, especially where their teachers are concerned. Their teachers have been known to "call it quits" in frustration. All three are in the same class room, grade five in Port Elgin and "sometimes we exchange seats and sometimes nobody ever knows the difference", says Fred.

The Scout leader of Port Elgin has just about given up trying and simply calls on their honor as scouts not to "pull my leg" and to work as individuals. However most of their fellow bus travellers are able to distinguish between the three boys, as can their parents.

Doug can also tell them apart, sometimes altogether too well. "I used to be able to handle all three at once, but now I have to grab one and force him to tell the others to get off me when things get a little rough."

George Chambers, District Scout Commissioner, says the three boys are the only triplets in the scouting movement in New Brunswick and may be the only ones in Canada. "They have certainly come a long way since joining last year and have proven themselves as individuals", says Mr. Chambers.

Music is another outlet for the boys. All study piano, Frank takes accordian, all play the recorder while big brother Doug plays the violin.

One way Mrs. Oulton says she is able to tell her boys apart, is not only because of what she terms "facial differences" but also because of their varying degrees of willingness to help. But this is of little help to a visitor.

Ask a question and receive three answers in unison - all usually the same as though they had been rehearsed. All enjoy the same school course - math. But find social studies the most difficult.

They all enjoy baseball and hockey and Montreal Canadians and Chicago Black Hawks are forced to share their support. All the boys resemble father with auburn hair and freckles, and all three are at same stage of development - missing the same teeth.

But, perhaps best of all, the boys are polite and well mannered although they do enjoy making things interesting - and very confusing.

A newspaper item sent by Irene Hall:

Grade 4 students at the Riverside Consolidated School in Riverside, Albert, N. B. were thrilled recently (Dec. 1980) when Emmeron Copp, a 91-year life-long resident of Albert County visited them with tales of their community in days gone by. He also demonstrated his skills at moose-calling and snowshoe-making.

The visit was made as part of his birthday celebrations and at the invitation of Betty Williams, a student who wanted her classmates to hear some of his "real life stories" of their past.

Mr. Copp told these listeners about his handling of all the rock that went into building their school basement some 75 years ago. He was 16 at the time and his father and a Mr. Graves had the contract for the 400 tons of stone needed for the basement and window sills.

Mr. Copp said he quarried the rock on Crank Brook in New Ireland and his particular job was to get the stone to the road with his horse. Better stone needed for the window sills had to be gotten from Midway.

The students also asked Mr. Copp about the making of snowshoes since he has the reputation for making fine snowshoes. He said that he found snowshoe making "very interesting" and discussed using rock maple and cowhide. He told them he had made more than 20 pairs last winter, but that he would only make them this year if someone brought him the material.

Mr. Copp was presented with a birthday cake made by Beulah Morrissey which was decorated with a log cabin, evergreen trees and a deer, in keeping with his lifelong love for the things of nature.

A sing-song followed in which Mr. Copp participated, and he also told the students his "bear story".

Margaret's father was from Waterville, N.S. and her mother from Dundas, P.E.I. Raymond is a clergyman - dist. sec. of Canadian Bible Soc., B. C. District, from which he retired in 1974. From then until June 30, 1983 when he retired again, he has been a visitation minister of First United Church in Vancouver, B.C.

In honor of their 50th wedding anniversary, Rev. and Mrs. Ray Tingley met many of their friends in the lounge and out on the patio of the Fairview, B. C. Baptist church, on the afternoon of August 22, 1982.

Their son, Dick, and daughter, Beverly Wilcox, made plans which they carried out to the delight of everyone.

Rev. Hartwell Watts, a friend of many years, gave the toast to the couple, recalling the years of the beginning of their relationship when they all lived in Dartmouth, N. S. Each of the Tingleys responded in his own respective way. Donna Dugstad sang a few favorite songs, accompanied by Irene Smythe. Many helped in various ways - Karen, mother of the older grandchildren had given much of her time and skill in baking and in flower decorations for the occasion and had charge of the goodies sent from the kitchen to the table, even ten-year-old Aaron Wilcox presented a pillow of golden roses in honor of their 50 years of married life. Mrs. Margaret Beal, the guest who had traveled the farthest, was Ray's sister from Middle Sackville, N. B. She assisted with the guest book[762].

Frank was a truck driver; Hattie is a retired teacher and vice principal.

Mrs. Hattie Bustin honored by community.

Dual honors from groups in the Petitcodiac community were received by Mrs. Hattie Bustin, a noted educator, who recently retired after more than 35 years of work in local schools.

In 1933 Hattie Stuart Bustin graduated from Riverside High School in Albert County and the following year she received a first class superior teaching license from the normal school she attended. She is well-known for her work in the field of education.

In Lower Cape, her first teaching position, she dealt with pupils from grades 1 to 9, all in the same classroom. In the Fall of 1952, after an absence of nine years from the labor force, during which time she married and became a parent, Mrs. Bustin returned to work, at this time on the staff of Petitcodiac Regional High School. There, she taught all subjects to her class of 47 Junior High School students.

In 1962, she assumed the responsibility of vice principal and came to specialize in mathematics and history, after which she served, for several years, on the matriculation marking board, grading history examinations.

In the absence of Rankin Smith, during the school year 1972, she acted as principal.

She continued to upgrade her own education, in addition to her teaching career and thus received a Bachelor of Teaching degree as well as Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Moncton. She has held offices with various committees and is currently active in the History Council.

In 1977, she was awarded the Queen's Silver Medal in honor of her work in her profession and in the community.

The Jaycees gave a special testimonial dinner which attracted more than 200 friends, fellow teachers and also past and present pupils. From the Psi chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority came the honor of being named First Lady of the Year in a special presentation at a tea held in her honor.

Mrs. Dickie, a former associate teacher with Mrs. Bustin on the staff of PRHS, gave a brief history of the school and outlined the high standards Mrs. Bustin set for herself and her pupils.

A letter from education minister Charles Gallagher was read. Jaycee Donal Perry presented Mrs. Bustin with a set of luggage.

MEMORIES OF ALBERTA
by
George A. Tingley

When I was 5 years old, my family went on a trip to New Brunswick by train. There were four children. From pictures that were given to us after the fire, it is easy to see that we were outfitted in new clothes for the trip. Clark, the youngest was about 6 months old at the time. I heard mother say that when we were on the train, Clark slept in a hammock-like affair which was provided to put shoes and other items in.

On that trip I remember visiting both sets of grandparents, the Tingleys at Petitcodiac, N.B. and the Newcombs at Hopewell Hill, N.B. At Grandpa and Grandma Tingley's home, I remember that we children slept on the floor. Out in the yard it seemed that the country-side was covered with flowers, probably wild daisies or asters. Grandpa took me out to his workshop.

At Hopewell Hill, I can remember the smell of wet wood in the woodshed. That sensation was to come again 13 years later when we moved to New Brunswick to live.

On the way through Montreal, we visited Uncle Hart Tingley and Aunt Edna. He took us in his car. I remember that we had to stop for a firetruck. It seemed as if there were hundreds of people around as the truck drove out on to the street.

We returned to the farm in Alberta before harvest. I remember a few incidents there. I rode on the back of the binder, hanging on to a vertical support behind the canvas. On another occasion I rode to town when a wagon load of grain was taken to the elevator. We lived about 4 miles from Delburne, Alta. In order to unload the grain, the front wheels of the wagon were raised so that the grain would go out the back of the box. I started to cry, since I had never seen that before.

One time during the harvest, I remember a big steam engine coming into the yard, towing a threshing machine. The outfit was owned by Joe Porter, a good friend and neighbor.

It was only a few months after returning from New Brunswick, that my father got up early so that he could go to a coal mine, a distance of about 9 miles each way with a sleigh and horses. Mother decided to go to the barn to help him - there were the cows to milk and the horses to get ready. After completing the work in the barn, they started toward the house. My father asked my mother if she had left a light on. She replied that she hadn't. He saw a light in the house which became brighter. He came to the conclusion that the house was on fire with 4 children sleeping inside. Clark was sleeping in a crib on the main floor, while the other 3 of us were upstairs. My father quickly got a ladder and went up to the window at the south end, getting me out and handing me to mother who was waiting on the ladder. She took me to the school van, a box-like affair on a sleigh. Even though it was February, I was able to keep reasonably warm with blankets and robes which were used to keep the school children warm. Mother went back to the burning house to await my father who was expected to hand Laura and Lynn to her. He never returned, perishing in the fire, along with the two middle children.

Mother then thought of Clark. She went to the door and hesitated because of the flames. However, she held her breath and brought Clark out along with the burning crib.

I walked barefoot through the snow with mother as she carried Clark. We made our way to our nearest neighbors, the Crocketts who lived across the road.

The Doctor was called, so that he could attend to Clark, who had extensive burns to his hands, feet and face. He was about 13 months old at the time.

Since mother was expecting another baby soon after, it was arranged that Clark go to the Hospital at Trochu, a few miles south of Delburne. A sister, Treva was born 11 days after the fire.

A few weeks later, when Clark and Treva were able to travel, mother left Delburne with the 3 children to go to her sister, Mary Hopkins, at Kindersley, Sask. Aunt Mary was a widow with 4 small children. Somehow the 2 mothers and 7 children lived together in the small 2 bedroom house in Kindersley. While we lived there, Clark was a day patient at the hospital.

We stayed there until spring, when mother was able to rent a small house. The situation was complicated when mother got bronchitis, which she had for many months.

Before school started, she was able to get a job keeping house for a widower and one child in a rural area south of Kindersley. We stayed there until the following March at which time we returned to Delburne. I started school at the small one room rural school, the Wild Rose School, 13 miles south of Kindersley. Apparently I liked my teacher there, because mother mentioned that she might return to teaching. I went along with the idea as long as Miss Fouch, the Wild Rose teacher, taught the boys.

When we returned to Delburne, we were able to rent a small log one room cabin for $2 a month. We stayed there for less than a year. Mother then bought a small house in the village. It was close to school. Most of the time while in that house, we had a couple of high school students boarding with us. They came from farming areas where high school wasn't taught.

In August 1929, mother was able to secure a position as teacher at the Bellgrove School.

LIFE AT SUNNYBRAE

Bellgrove was a typical rural school district, about 5 miles long on each side. If the school was strategically located, no one would live more than 2 or 3 miles from school.

The lady who boarded the teacher, Miss Jemima McLennan, lived 9 miles south-west of Delburne. We were moved to our new home by Bill Stoness. One of his daughters had boarded with us the previous year. He went to Delburne with a team and hay rack to move us out to the country. After we were loaded, he had 4 passengers, mother and the 3 of us in addition to our belongings. Since Miss McLennan (we affectionately called her Auntie Mima), only had a 2 bedroom house, we slept in an old granary which was moved beside her house. Mother had a Quebec heater to keep us warm.

Since Clark and Treva were aged 3 and 2 respectively, Mother hired Vera Bates to do the house work and to look after us for $15 a month and her board. Vera nearly always went home on week-ends. Her home was about 4 miles away. She usually had transportation provided by one of her brothers or a boy friend.

I was in Grade 3 when I went there. Since I was the only one in that grade, mother decided to promote me to Grade IV after Christmas. That must have been a courageous move on her part, since I was the first student that she accelerated there. It wasn't the easiest situation to have a parent for a teacher. There was no way that I could keep my parent from seeing my report card.

One reason that mother went to Bellgrove was that there was the Nazarene Church there. On Sunday afternoon Auntie Mima would catch either Maude or Florrie, put the harness on, get hitched up and drive 4 miles to church in a one seat buggy. The two adults occupied the seat, Clark and Treva sat on the floor at their feet and I rode in the back with my legs dangling.

One time after getting home from church, Clark and Treva were playing in the house. Somehow Clark while playing on a pull-toy fell, broke one of his legs in 2 places and dislocated his hip. The Doctor had to be phoned - he drove out the 9 miles from town and looked after Clark.

Christmas was a favorite time of the year while we were there. Auntie Mima had 2 sisters, Mrs. Maude Campbell and Mrs. Mary McKay. There were 2 children in the Campbell family, twin boys. They were about a month older than me. The McKays were older, their children were grown and away from home. Christmas or New Years was always celebrated at one of the 3 homes. We were included as if we were one of the family. We didn't get many gifts, but the food was always good, and we had all that we could eat.

The Depression started then. Mother's salary was $1000 the first year. When the second year came, her salary was cut to $900. Vera's wages were correspondingly cut to $12.50 per month. We never wanted for food and we seemed to have enough clothes. In the spring of 1930, mother bought her first car.

Our first summer vacation was spent with Aunt Mary in Kindersley. The most direct route by train was to leave from Stettler, a town east of Delburne. Since the trip was 40 miles, mother decided to take 2 days for it. We stayed at the Delburne parsonage the first night, then drove to Stettler the next day. She left the car with one of the members of the church at Stettler.

At the end of the summer we returned to Stettler. Mother expected to find her car there. However, since she had inadvertantly left the keys in the car, the son of the person that we left the car with drove off with it, doing some damage to it. It turned out that we had an unexpected visit of a few days in Stettler. The man that we stayed with was a photographer. Because of all the trouble we got some free photographs, even though mother had to pay for the repairs for the car.

During the summer holidays of 1931, mother rented a house which was less than a quarter mile from the church. We would have had a good time there, except that we got the whooping cough. We weren't bedridden nor were we confined to the yard, because all the other children in the area had the disease. We were banned from going to church until we recovered.

During the following year mother started keeping company with a widower, Tom Metcalf, who lived in the district north of Bellgrove. They decided to get married. The wedding took place early in July of 1932. That involved another move to the Metcalf home.

The Bellgrove area is as scenic as any area I've lived in. There were lots of hills and sloughs. Auntie Mima lived on a quarter section - 160 acres. It had been homesteaded by her brother, Peter. As soon as she arrived she promptly named it Sunnybrae (Gaelic for hill). The McLennans had originally come from Cape Breton, N. S. A year or two after we left Bellgrove, Auntie Mima returned to Nova Scotia to keep house for a brother. During the war when I was in the RCAF I visited the McLennans in Nova Scotia.

When we were at Sunnybrae I walked to school by myself. I spent much of my spare time roaming the hills. In the spring I would rob the nests of crows and magpies. They were considered to be pests. We were even paid for each egg by the municipality. That was an incentive to try to reduce the crow and magpie population.

WESTERN CANADIAN BLIZZARDS

There have been many stories of what the wind can do with snow in the west.

In 1950 my wife Dorothy and I decided to drive from Stettler, Alberta to Regina, Saskatchewan for the Easter holidays. We had our small English car packed and left our teacherage about 15 miles southwest of Stettler. Most of the snow was gone and the weather was in the high 50's.

We got almost to the Alberta-Saskatchewan border before we stopped. We stayed in the hotel at Sibbald, Alberta. The next morning we had an early start. Since we were awakened by occupants of the next room about 5 AM, we decided to get up. It was Good Friday, so no eating places were open. We started east. After going a few miles, the wind started to blow accompanied by snow. We got along OK until we were going up a grade about 10 miles west of Kindersley. We got stuck and attempted to shovel our way out. However the snow blew in faster than we could clear it away. I would try to drive while Dorothy pushed, then we would exchange places and try again. We couldn't move the car. It was about 10 above, but with the wind we could only stay out a short time. We eventually had to give up. In a few minutes a car was seen coming through the drifting snow. They stopped and helped us out. Because of the large drift, they decided to turn around and follow us to Kindersley.

When we got to Kindersley, we went to visit my cousin Mai Francis and her family. She gave us our breakfast. We also had a chance to get warm and to get dried. After eating, I decided to go to a service station for gas. I barely got started when I ran out of gas.

After a couple of attempts to head east, we returned to stay with Aunt Mary and her husband.

On Easter Sunday morning we headed toward Saskatoon in a caravan of 4 vehicles. One of them was the group that helped us two days earlier. We were able to help each other through the drifts until we got to Saskatoon. We arrived in Regina about 11 that night. After the Easter holiday, we were able to return to our teacherage without any problems.

The most spectacular blizzard that we were in was the following year. I was teaching at another school a few miles south of where we were in 1950. One of my duties at that school was to order coal. One Thursday in March, the truck came with coal for us. That night the wind started to blow, along with snow. It blew all that night, so much so that there were drifts in the school the next morning. The snow had blown in through the cracks. It blew all day Friday. No children arrived at school.

On Monday, all of the children returned. Their parents couldn't take them in cars or trucks as they usually did. They brought them with horses and sleighs. We were only closed for one day whereas some schools were closed for up to 10 days, because the vans couldn't get through.

We couldn't get to town for supplies or mail. However we had a school inspector that insisted that we keep a 50 lb.

bag of flour in a metal barrel, so that we could survive a blizzard. After a week, one of the bachelors decided to walk 12 miles to town for the mail.

The roads were finally opened by using bulldozers. The snow was so hard that horses could walk on it. There was a drift near the school, where it took the bulldozer 1 1/2 hours to get through it.

During the night of the blizzard, a curling team left Stettler to return to their homes. Their families tried to contact them the next day, but they were unsuccessful. There wasn't any way that the snow plows could get through - even on the highway. An army tank was sent out to look for them. It was finally discovered that they (the curlers) had stopped at a farmhouse where there wasn't a phone.

The last blizzard I was in was a few days after Christmas in 1975 - after we had moved to Calgary. Even in the city, most of the traffic was stopped. Some of the city buses were getting stuck while on their routes. It was after that storm that I went to a book of poetry and was able to read of Whittier's account of what some of the early New England inhabitants did when they were snowbound.

N6C 1X7, born July 8, 1921 at Montreal, Que.; married July 5, 1951 at St. Thomas, Ont., Dorothy Gene, daughter of William Edgar and Viola Mae (Brown) Rowe, of , born Mar. 25, 1925 at St. Thomas, Ont. Dorothy's father was born June 19, 1890 at St. Thomas, her mother was born Jan. 1, 1895 at Lawrence Station. Merle is a cartoonist.

Ting's Creations at the Drawing Board

Known as "Ting" in London Free Press, where he has been cartoonist since 1947, he runs his own syndicate and there are at least six Canadian daily newspapers and 50 weeklies which use Ting's service. He has won national and international awards for his writing and cartoons. He has published nine books of cartoons.

He started as draftsman, but he developed his own style as cartoonist. Ting has done cartoons for several armed forces publications, creating features such as "This Dog Gone Army", "Occupational Oscar", and others, but "Luke Worm" still haunts Tingley's acid penstroke.

Luke Worm - we shall call him "him" from now on; after all, he has his own personality - had a humble origin. He was just a wiggly worm in the foundation of a building on Ting's architectural blueprint.

He has been many places since - in the jungles of the Congo, in the trenches in Korea, the Far East, Middle East, Congo, Cyprus, etc. as Ting presented chalk-talks to troops in many places.

Ting - had just left high school in Montreal and was hired by a drafting firm.

"Drawing those straight lines was getting me," the cartoonist said in an interview as he told of Luke Worm's birth.

So when drawing plans for the new headquarters building of a large corporation, a wiggly little worm was drawn in a crack in the foundation.

Ting - only his mother calls him Merle - added: "I guess I forgot to erase it. When the enlarged blueprint came out, there, as big as life, was that little worm."

Things never were the same again with his boss - result, they parted company. Now and for some time, Merle Tingley has his own syndicate to distribute his cartoons. In almost every one of them Luke Worm can be seen.

Ting entered a department store contest at age 11 which won him $2. He drew toy soldiers because, like most boys, he wanted to be a soldier. Santa Claus presented him with that two bucks. Ting, now 62, still loves Santa for it.

In 1942, Ting joined the army and became staff cartoonist for Khaki, the weekly armed forces magazine. In that paper, his cartoon was titled "This Dog Gone Army". The characters were soldiers represented by different breeds of dogs. The officers were show dogs, privates were mutts, MP's were police dogs, naturally, and just as naturally German soldiers were dachshunds.

After VE Day, Ting, of all things, was stuck with the forces of occupation in Germany. There, most of his time was spent drawing "Occupational Oscar" in the Maple Leaf, the forces daily newspaper.

Eventually, he got out of service, decided to look for a job as cartoonist on a newspaper. He bought a second-hand motorcycle and started across Canada. It wasn't until on his way back that he succeeded, when he stopped at the Free Press, where they took him on.

He has since won such recognition as the World Newspaper Forum Award, the Award for United States Cartoons for Peace, the National Headliner of America Award, and the International Salon of Cartoons.

Later, after his second World War Army days, Ting served as war correspondent for the Free Press in the Korean War and toured the Middle East during the Suez Canal crisis in 1957. He was in the Congo in 1963, Cyprus in 1964 and in the Far East on two occasions with United States forces.

Married now with two sons, his family often serves as caricatures in dealing with man-in-the-street problems. However, Luke Worm is always there too, but may be well hidden.

To summarize Ting's biography, put it in proper sequence and more complete, we have received the following from Ting, as taken from the Community Relations Dept. of London Free Press.

Merle Randolph Tingley was born in Montreal. Hardly anyone calls him Merle Randolph; he's affectionately known as "Ting".

Ting graduated from Montreal High School, but his editor says he can spell anything but words. That's why he draws pictures for a living --- and he has become pretty good at it.

He did take an art course, but left after one year to become a draughtsman. That career was short-lived when he doodled a worm into a building plan. Apparently engineers don't like worms in foundations of their solid structures. (Today, "Luke Worm" appears hidden in all of Ting's cartoons and readers of all ages enjoy the daily challenge of unearthing the little critter with the corncob pipe.)

With Hitler on the warpath, Tingley joined the army in 1942. Shortly after, His Majesties Canadian Forces were looking for a cartoonist to enhance the army magazine Khaki. Ting got the job. Later he was transferred overseas to serve on the forces daily The Maple Leaf.

The art department of an advertising agency picked him up after the war, but the cartoon bug had bitten and you can't have much fun with beans, soap and deodorants.

Hitting the road on a second-hand motor bike he visisted newspapers from coast to coast, but to no avail. The would-be cartoonist took a job as a photo-retoucher at The London Free Press in 1947. Two months later he wormed himself into the first Free Press cartoonist's job. He's still there.

Ting cartoons are now syndicated to a number of daily and weekly papers across Canada.

Never having lost his ties with the troops Tingley has entertained our peace-keeping forces in Korea, the Mideast, the Congo, Cyprus and Europe. Added to this, are two missions to the Pacific and the Far East sponsored by the American government.

Among his many laurels are 16 national and international awards including five for humorous writing. Two children's books and nine volumes of his Free Press cartoons add to his credits.

As a designer for London's fantasy park, Storybook Gardens, Ting has been on the advisory committee since its inception in 1958.

Merle Randolph Tingley has one wife, Genie, two sons, two cats, and a dog, and of course, Luke Worm.

E1E 3C5, born Jan. 12, 1926 at Petitcodiac, N.B.; married July 11, 1953 at Moncton, N. B., Alice Joyce, daughter of Harold Charles and Maize Madge (Thompson) Carter, of Moncton, N. B., born June 11, 1929 at Moncton, N. B. Rupert is vice president of CNR Marine Services on the East Coast.

Rupert was granted a B. S. degree from the Univ. of N. B. in 1950. He served in the Royal Canadian Air Force from 1943 to 1946. Since graduation he has worked exclusively for the Canadian National Railway, as civil engineer, having lived in Moncton, N.B., London, Ont., Edmundston, N.B., and Montreal, Que.

In 1974 the Halifax Chronicle-Herald gave the following:

"Canadian National is planning the introduction of new passenger vessels capable of handling 1200 passengers and 300 vehicles between Nova Scotia and Newfoundland as early as 1976.

"Rupert J. Tingley, general manager, East Coast Marine and Ferry Service, told the Atlantic Development Council here (Sydney) yesterday the new equipment would reduce the trip to four hours from the present six and a half hour crossing."

He has been vice president and general manager of CNR Marine since 1978 when Canadian National and the government of Canada began consolidating operating responsibility and capital control of the Atlantic ferry services within CN Marine.

In the early seventies he became responsible for modernization and management of the ferry services. He gained operating, marketing, customer research and engineering experience with CN before that, in the Atlantic provinces, in Ontario and in Montreal, at the company's head office.

He became familiar with the World's major ports and the transportation systems serving them when he played a key role in planning CN's involvement in the North American rail haul of import-export containers.

Tingley is a member of Canada's Marine Transportation Research and Development Advisory Board, the Association of Professional Engineers of New Brunswick and of several chambers of commerce in the Atlantic provinces. He is active in the community as a rotary club member, as president of the Atlantic Symphony Orchestra's Moncton Committee, vice president of the Moncton Hospital's community support association, secretary of the board of directors of the Atlantic Baptist Senior Citizen's Home and chairman of the board's expansion committee. In 1979 he was appointed president and general manager of CN Marine Corporation, the Canadian National subsidiary that operates the principal ferry services on Canada's east coast.

Robert was a maintenance supervisor; Amy, a bookkeeper - secretary. Both now retired. No children.

The following are excerpts from Bob and Amy's:

SEASON'S GREETING TO ALL FOR 1980

Once again it is that glorious time of year when we get in touch with friends and kinfolk near and far. Bob and I look forward so much to all the news and cards from you, and in turn we thank you for remembering us with all your good wishes.

Last year at Christmas time we set out to have Christmas dinner with June and Arnold but a freak Pacific storm came inland and blocked the roads to Oregon. We stayed overnight at Redding to see if roads would be opened. We had breakfast with a couple that had just come in over the mountain road. It had taken them 14 hours to go 100 miles, and they still had another two hundred to go to reach their destination. Besides slush, snow and blizzard, a tractor-trailer truck skidded and had blocked the southbound lane of highway 5. This is one of the main highways north and south along the inland route of Wash., Oregon and Calif. Didn't seem hopeful that it would be unblocked in time for Christmas so we drove back home, because I had to get back to the office the day after Christmas.

In May I took my two weeks holidays and set out to explore places for possible retirement. Visited Phoenix, Tuc-son and Green Valley of Arizona and on to Albuquerque, New Mexico. We did enjoy a visit with our friends, Ab and Pat Irvine there who showed us their lovely city. However, we decided it was too high altitude for us, over 5,000 feet. I was puffing all the time and so did Bob.

From Albuquerque, we went to Klamath Falls, Oregon but decided it would be a bit too wintry for us, too much like the Canadian winters we left, and that would never do. Back for a visit at Chico. We did like what we saw but still undecided.

Gave my notice for quitting my job on August 1st but my replacement did not come in until Aug. 11, so it was August 15th when I was through. We went back to Chico to put up a metal shed for our Friends there, Homer and Sarah. We worked in heat of late 90s and early 100s. We hardly felt it, drank lots of their lovely water. San Marcos air is smoggy, and the water is so smelly although medical authorities say it is healthy...I wonder.

Suddenly we decided to take a trip east before we made a decision. It was a wonderful trip, fine weather, beautiful foliage, and a warm welcome wherever we visited. It was grand to see everyone that we could get on the route and only wish there had been more time and money, to see the rest of our friends and kinfolk, but everyone seems to be scattered all over the map. Nothing can dim these happy memories of our 1980 eastern trip ever!

On our return, we started packing as we had decided Chico was the place! It is a town (city) of 26,000, approx. 100 miles northwest of Sacramento, if you cannot find it on the map. It is agriculture country, rice fields to the south, hay, wheat, grains east and west, and gradual sloping mountains to the north going into Mount Lassen Park. The streets are tree-lined and very colorful this fall with maples, etc. Reminds me much of Canada, maybe that is why Bob and I decided to settle here. No smog, very little fog, no traffic congestion, and good, good water. Chico is the almond capitol of the world, and I am anxious to see the almond trees which are the earliest trees to bloom as well as the pistachio trees come this spring. They claim winters will drop to 20 degrees but winter is short, and rainfall annually is about 24 inches. Dec. 1 is usually beginning winter. So far we have not had to have the furnace on as the days are very warm and sunny. Humidity is low which I like. We shall see...

Our warmest wishes for the holiday season, and may you all have the very best life can offer, peace, happiness, good health and prosperity, that is our wish for you all.

Excerpts from Bob and Amy's:

HOLIDAY SEASON - 1982

It is hard to believe that another year has rolled around, and time seems to move even faster though we have retired with nothing to do...haha.

At this time of the year we think fondly of our loved ones and dear friends and of the happy times we have had with all of them once more. Time cannot wipe out these memories. It is hard to drop anyone of you, and to forget these times deliberately as it were.

In May this year (1982) we found a little house suitable for our needs and moved into it in time for Bob to plant a bit of a garden.

Fall is early here this year and lots of leaves to rake up around here. Chico is pretty with so many trees to turn in the fall. Wish you could see it and enjoy our winters so come over or down if that is where you are located. Get the plane to Sacramento, or San Francisco, we will pick you up.....love to see you.

GOD BLESS YOU ALL.

Love,

Bob and Amy

The following is a quote taken from a letter written by Valerie's father to our T-U editor:

"It is interesting to note that in the last newsletter, Steve Tingley is still flicking flies off his horses' ears with his whip. He has been doing that ever since I first heard of him many years ago. There is now a shortage of flies in the Cariboo and many horses have died of heart attacks I am sure.

"There is no doubt that Steve was a dare-devil stagecoach driver and the road in his days must have been terrible. It seems he could handle a four-horse or six-horse team with ease. The Cariboo Highway is well paved now and is a beautiful drive with beautiful scenery. There are canyons so deep, so it is said, that if you fell in you should take your lunch to eat on the way down for it would be a monotonous trip.

"Steve came from the same town that I did (in 1907), Sackville, N. B. His wife is buried back there as he took her body all the way back after she was killed in the Cariboo in a runaway accident. Steve was before my time but my father knew him."

From Helen, in 1977:

"This summer I realized my dream of 'Around the world by way of Russia', enjoying a trip through Holland, Finland, and a leisurely luxurious cruise up the Rhine. Flights to Leningrad and subsequent tours of Novgorod, Kiev, Odessa on the Black Sea, Volgograd and Moscow - an adventure. In the latter city we boarded the Trans Siberian Railway which carried us across Siberia to the Pacific with four day stop overs in Bratsk, Irkutsk and the Lake Baikal region. We found much of beauty, entertainment and interest.

"The orient provided a complete culture shock. Japan with its luxury hotels, Bullet trains, lovely gardens and ancient shrines - an affluent society we thought.

"After 65 days we were pleased to return to Canada.

"Another happy trip took me to London, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy taking the boat from Brondise to Greece - stopping at Corfu, a beautiful island of ancient historical interest and on to Athens via the Corinth Canal. We traveled on to Yugoslavia, on to Venice. From Venice we traveled through the Brenner Pass to Innsbruck in Austria the capital of the Austrian Tyrol. From there we went to Munich an historical city for more reasons than one. From Munich we went to France - passing through one of the battle fields of two world wars. We left Paris for London and then on to Scotland, the home of my mother's people - Duresdeer - for 11 days - passing through the beautiful lake country on the way.

"After 26 years in charge of the eye, ear, nose and throat clinic at the Vancouver General Hospital it is wonderful to be retired. I have a log house by the sea on the Seshelt Peninsula (a lovely place to escape to) and an apartment in Vancouver. It is the best of two worlds. It has been an interesting life."

Thomas C. Garnalt at St. Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, West Philadelphia, PA, Charles Love Scott, II (09-00973-02), son of Clement and Louisa Henrietta (Scott) Tingley, of Philadelphia, PA, born June 8, 1865 at West Philadelphia, PA; died Apr. 5, 1935 at his desk in New York (heart attack) (living in No. Plainfield, NJ for 9 yrs.), buried in Laurel Hill Cem. at Philadelphia, PA. Charles worked for the America Gas & Electric Co. of NY, was a native of Philadelphia, having lived in St. David's, a suburb of that city. He was educated by his father up to the latter's death, attended public school for about 1 year and then entered the Episcopal Academy in Philadelphia from which he graduated number three in his class in June 1881. He entered the employ of the Guard Point Storage Co. on August 17, 1881, remaining until Mar. 1888 when he entered the employ of Peter Wright and Sons, one of the oldest and most influential houses in Philadelphia. As auditor in the steamship department was made cashier of the steamship dept. the same year and upon their relinquishing the general agency for the international navigation company became sole cashier for the firm, which position he resigned Mar. 1, 1897 to become comptroller of the Maradon Company. He organized the accounting department of this company, being unable to agree with the accounting policy of the other officers he resigned his position June 1, 1898 and became Philadelphia sales agent for L.S. Knowles of Boston; this position was incongenial and unsatisfactory and he severed his connection with this firm in Feb. 1899. On Apr. 20, 1899 he was elected secretary and assist. treasurer of the newly organized American Railways Company of Philadelphia on July 1, 1900 became full treasurer, 2nd vice president Mar. 1, 1903. He was active in church work being a vestryman of the church of the Ascension in Philadelphia for about 3 years, serving as secretary of the vestry and accounting warden, he also represented that parish in the Diocesan convention for four years. He was active in the Brotherhood of St. Andrew for 15 years, helping to organize the Philadelphia local assembly, serving on the executive committee for 15 years and on his resignation was the only original member of that body still upon it, he served as secretary and treasurer, vice president, president, and treasurer.

He was very fond of athletics, representing his school on both the cricket and football teams, belonged for many years to the Belmont Cricket Club of Philadelphia for which club he frequently played. He is a charter member of the church club of Philadelphia and a member of the Penna. Society of the Sons of the Revolution, in right of descent from Hon. Gustavus Scott. As an officer of the American Railways Co. he was secretary and treasurer of all its controlled companies and a director in most of them, has represented his company in the conventions of the Street Railway Association of America and the Street Railway Accountants Association of America, serving the latter as vice president in 1951 and served on important committees. (Sent in by Charles A. Tingley, and written by his grandfather.)

Elizabeth supplied the following:

"Mother married Fred Becker when we lived in Plainfield, NJ. Her health was not good after a couple of years and the doctor sent her to Macon, GA to live. While we were there she and Fred Becker were divorced.

"The doctor then told mother that she needed a dry climate so she and I moved to Spokane, WA where I lived with my aunt, Annette Lightner and my other aunt, Lois Ruska, who had moved to Spokane a few years before. I continued to live with my Aunt Annette until I finished school and went to work for a newspaper in Spokane. In the meantime, mother had gone to CA because it was warmer and she met and married Ward Munson in San Francisco (she had known him briefly in Spokane). A little later I came to CA to live with my mother and Ward Munson and I have been here since 1929.

"After my mother was divorced from Ward Munson in 1936 she worked as a saleslady until her retirement. She owned 5 3/4 acres of redwood trees about sixty miles south of San Francisco where she built two summer cabins. She dearly loved her country place near Piscaders, CA but as her health started to fail, she came to live with us and stayed with us until her death in July 1976. I took her ashes East and she along with her parents, brothers and sisters are buried in the Baptist Cem. in North Plainfield, NJ.

"I have tried to get information about my father but so far no luck. I am still trying."

08-00227

07-00079-01 JAMES HARVEY TINGLEY, always known as Harvey or Harv., was a farmer, woodsboss and a carpenter. His first wife, Ethel Permilia Smith, had passed away while the family was at Caledona, leaving him with two children, Francis Irving or Uncle Frank, as his nieces and nephews knew him, and a small daughter, Elizabeth or Lily, who was raised by her mother's people. At the time of moving the family to Maine, they insisted on keeping her and as a result, she grew to womanhood believing her father did not care about her, which was not true. Perhaps his first wife's people resented his remarriage, those things sometimes happen, but whatever the cause, she had no dealings with her half-brothers and sisters, and passed her resentment along to her two daughters, according to her daughter, Blanche Higgins, who lives in Seattle, WA.

In 1866, he married Bea's grandmother, Mary Anne Sprague, daughter of Elijah and Susan Whetmore Sprague. The Spragues were from Boston and had come to St. John with the loyalists.

Bea never knew her grandpa, as he died when she was only five, although she remembers going across to him in his garden and kissing him goodby, and how his beard tickled her cheek. In later years, both his brother and nephew often spoke of his unusual ability as both a woodsboss and a barn framer and, like all his family, he was an expert horseman.

As a child, the highlight of her summer vacation was her visit to see her grandmother at her daughter's home. She loved her dearly. Like the other sons' wives, she was alone with small children while grandpa was in the woods for the winter. She did have a near neighbor across the road, but some of them were really isolated from neighbors. She passed away in 1925.

08-00228

07-00079-02 EDWARD ALLEN TINGLEY, the second son, did not come to Maine with the rest of his father's family, but always lived in New Brunswick. Bea saw him only once, when he was brought to the farm by his sister, Linda, to visit awhile with his brother, Elijah. Bea has never forgotten that visit, as to her, he seemed very austere in black, and what impressed her most was the fact that they spent most of their short time together arguing about religion rather than exchanging news of their respective families which would have been the natural thing, Bea thought.

Bea learned from some of his descendants that he was a school teacher, and also a postmaster. His wife, Annabelle Colpitts, was of Pollet River, N. B. The Colpitts family were the first settlers of that area. Both passed away many years ago.

08-00005-01 SARAH WHEATON-WHIPPLE died Jan. 1, 1919 at home of Mrs. F. M. Pillsbury, Providence, RI[232]; married at Woonsocket, RI, Eliab Daniel Whipple, of Cumberland, RI, born at Cumberland, RI; died at Cumberland, RI, buried in W. Wrentham Cem. at W. Wrentham, MA. He was a farmer[201]. The following was supplied by Ann Briziarelli, working on her line:

Sarah was a grand niece of the Rev. Hosea Ballou, one of the founders of Universalism in this country. Her early education was obtained in public schools of the numerous towns in MA and RI in which her father, a Methodist minister, was stationed from year to year. Later, she was educated in the New Salem Academy, and was for ten years before her marriage a teacher in the public schools of various MA and RI towns. She had a thoroughly scholarly mind, and especially during the latter part of her life, until too feeble to do so, spent much time in reading and writing, continuing always her habit of making notes and abstracts as she read. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Arnold Mills, RI.

Mrs. Whipple will be always remembered as a wise, tender, and sympathetic mother, and a true and loyal friend, a woman of noble ideals, and true Christian character.

08-00278-08 JOHN M. TINGLEY died July 23, 1982 at Moncton hosp., after a brief illness.

Myra Lusby writes (1981): "My Uncle John Tingley of Point de Bute, now living in Moncton, will be 99 on March 15th. I visited him recently and his wit is as keen as ever. He commented on the fact that he had all the arrangements made for his funeral but was afraid he was going to outlive his pall bearers. While hard of hearing he seemed in good health - is living with his adopted daughter."

JOHN M. TINGLEY's 100th birthday:

After John's wife died in 1973 he continued to live in Lower Point de Bute until 1977, when he went to live with his adopted daughter, Marion Wilbur. John's 100th birthday called for a special fete, which was sponsored on Monday, March 15th, 1982 by the Point de Bute Women's Institute and attended by more than 150 friends and relatives of John M. Tingley.

A painting of his old homestead by local artist John Amos was presented by William R. Trueman. Peter Fisher, now occupying the former Tingley farm presented Mr. Tingley with a key to the front door and invited John to visit him and his family, who are enjoying the delightful old home, where John had a large apple orchard of 500 trees, and grew other fruit.

Besides the usual messages from the Queen, Governor-General, Prime Minister, and others, Joanne Bell read a poem dedicated to Mr. Tingley entitled simply:

TO JOHN

John Tingley, born in Point de Bute one hundred years ago,
Opened his little mouth and cried "To the woods I'll go!"

But first poor John was sent to school - prison had begun.
And there, locked up against his will, he turned it into fun.

Outdoors - to fields, to orchards, barns, to cut and haul the wood
To fish and hunt in woods and bog - this life was truly good.

Lots of friends and pretty girls, races in horse and sleigh,
His recipe for living long - "Don't worry, work, and play."

It came John's turn to run the farm - he took an Oulton bride.
Who did her share, and likely more, six decades at his side.

When Henry Ford first built a car, John wanted one like mad.

And through his life, I've heard it said, that thirty-six he had.

"Game Warden" was a role he filled for twenty years or so
From Memramcook to Tormentine the poachers dared not show!

Wild Bill Hickock with a gun was famous as the best
But had he come to Point de Bute, John would have won the test.

Many the boys who worked for John, Throops, Carters, Jones, (a few)
Picking apples, digging spuds - the things that farmers do.

I guess he worked them hard and long - Wilf Carter ran away!
And no one's ever heard of him up to this very day!

By horse and wagon, then by car to Sackville John did go
To sell potatoes, apples, eggs, and visit as he'd go.

Tobacco was his only vice but he was cured one day
When he lit up a cigarette and threw the match away.

Bill Trueman, standing in the grass, saw sparks then flames ascend
They stamped the fire out - said John "That's it. No more. THE end."

The sharpest wit, a ready smile, he called a spade a spade.
Trusted, respected by one and all, how many friends he's made!

When asked about the cemetery fence, he answered with a grin
Why? Those now in there can't get out and who wants to get in?"

When he was seventy years of age (when some of us start to slack)
Into the woods to get a deer and carry it out on his back.

John always had a faithful dog, made happy by his touch.
Wee Penny's heart is just as big - she loves him just as much.

For your hundredth birthday, March 15, 1982

Mrs. Lorne (JoAnne) Bell

Mr. Truman, of Advocate, N.S., formerly of Point de Bute, gave a few humorous anecdotes from the life of the honored guest.

Mr. Tingley expressed his appreciation for the party, the gifts, and the attendance of so many of his old friends.

A bountiful lunch of sandwiches, breads, and sweets was served by the WI, including a beautiful birthday cake and coffee before the guests departed.

Mr. Tingley was mentally alert and enjoyed the fete in spite of his age, recalling many happenings of the past.

You may say he wasn't a wealthy man, but that depends on how you define wealth. He was rich, in the lore of the woods and streams, in his knowledge of the land, and in his ability of sizing up people. Possibly the greatest thing of value he possessed was his sense of humor, which seemed to never fail him. If being rich consists merely of material possessions, he was of modest means, but if it also includes making and keeping friends, he was wealthy.

Had been ailing for some time, and sleeping a good part of her days, but she was still very alert and certainly not a bit senile. We had a spell of very hot weather in July and it was very hard on her, and one night she felt very sick, so the doctor thought she would be more comfortable in the hospital. She seemed to perk up at first, but her heart was faltering, and on the morning of Aug. 3 (the day before my birthday) she went to sleep and did not waken. I really miss her, but I am glad that she did not suffer." (Supplied by her daughter, Ruth)

Numerous articles have been written about the former governor of New Mexico. This one was recently sent to the compiler by Mary Tingley Rowland and much is given here in brief:

"He took his first job as a railroad construction worker. Later, he became a machinist and worked on the parts for the first planes made by the Wright Bros. He was called one of the most popular politicians ever to hold the reigns of the Democratic party in New Mexico.

"He was also praised widely for his civic and benevolent activities and was one of the most colorful and controversial characters in New Mexico's political history.

"Clyde Tingley worked at various jobs in his early days, among them he worked for the National Cash Register Company, Stoddard Automobile Co., the New Era Gas Engine Company which made parts for the first airplane built by the Wright Bros.

"Later he was with General Motors in Flint, MI and soon was named superintendent of the Graham Motor Car Co. at Bowling Green, OH. His entry into politics came in 1916 when he campaigned for alderman. As a working man himself he easily won at the polls as the ward consisted mostly of shop workers and railroaders. He campaigned on buying the local water works and his campaign paid off handsomely. The original $400,000 water works facility is now worth many millions.

"In the two terms as governor, he adhered to Franklin D. Roosevelt's policies and obtained government aid to build three dams within the state of New Mexico and several other public projects.

"Many of the Tingley charities were directed to the aid of children, such as the Hospital for Crippled Children, known as the Carrie Tingley Hospital for Crippled Children. This childless couple obtained direct aid from President Roosevelt in 1935 when the Public Works Administration turned over $290,000 for the project.

"The name of Clyde Tingley will never be forgotten so long as Tingley Coliseum at the State Fairground stands, and the local baseball park bears his name."

08-00590-02 MARY VIOLA TINGLEY-LAWRENCE died Apr. 23, 1931 at daughter's home; married June 20, 1870 at San Francisco, CA, Hon. James Henry Lawrence. Mary worked at U. S. Mint in San Francisco from 1865 to 1869 and returned there July 1, 1877. Her final retirement, at age 90, was Aug. 20, 1922, as an inspectress of customs.

Shirley Sargent, wrote to M. Willis Tingley, "You are welcome to use the text on Mary Viola Tingley Laurence I wrote for Pioneers in Petticoats. I have a lot of information on Mary Tingley who married James H. Laurence July 20, 1870 in San Francisco.

"Her daughter Constance Violet Laurence was born about 1876. She was a student at Cal in 1896, married a Robert Dean June 28, 1904, resided on Russian Hill, and had one daughter, Constance Roberta Dean.

"Presumably the Laurences separated by 1877, for she returned to work in the U. S. Mint at San Francisco July 1, 1877. (She had worked there between 1865 and 1869. Her final retirement, at 90, was August 20, 1922, as an inspectress of customs.)

"On July 20, 1901, the Laurences were remarried in the same church, and on the same day, as their original ceremony. J.H. Laurence died later that same day.

"Mary Viola died April 23, 1931, at the home of her daughter."

From a scrapbook of deaths, marriages, poems, etc., supplied by Marion Borders:

"The marriage of the Hon. James H. Laurence, state senator from Mariposa County, with Miss Viola Tingley, daughter of the late Hon. George B. Tingley, which took place at Calvary church in this city, on Sunday evening, was one of the season. Mr. Laurence is the editor and proprietor of the Mariposa Free Press and Miss Tingley is the well known and extensively read 'Ridinghood' correspondent of the Sacramento Union. Mr. Laurence's geniality and proverbial generosity of character have made him a favorite with all persons who enjoy his acquaintance, while Miss Tingley is everywhere known as a lady of high literary attainments, possessed of a sweet disposition, and well calculated to render connubial life one of happiness."

Excerpt taken from the book Pioneers in Petticoats - Yosemite's Early Women 1856-1900, by Shirley Sargent, with her permission:

"Mary Viola Tingley Lawrence, widely-read California newspaperwoman, did a bit of printed embroidery on Lady Yelverton in Summer with a Countess, which appeared in the October, 1871, Overland Monthly. When 'the Countess' left the Valley, she became lost afoot in a storm

'In her fall, a manzanita-bush had twitched the blanket from off her shoulders, and a purse of gold was torn from her pocket and the contents scattered...Tugging down, holding on by a twig and bush, slipping, sliding, and falling, again and again, she finally became blind, and sank, completely exhausted, on the ground...'

"'Ridinghood', as Mrs. Lawrence signed her columns, had had an exciting life. Born in Indiana in 1840, Mary Viola Tingley accompanied her parents muleback across the Isthmus of Panama and then by ship to San Francisco in 1851. Thereafter the family was engrossed in pioneering in California. George B. Tingley, Mary's father, had been speaker pro-tem for California's first legislature, was a skillful lawyer and became the chief organizer of the Republican party.

Mary attended the State's first high school, in San Francisco, where she was a devoted student of Louisa A. Clappe better known as 'Dame Shirley' author of The Shirley Letters.

"Her own literary career began after an 1868 early spring trip to Yosemite Valley with Galen Clar, James M. Hutchings and Noah Brooks, editor of the Sacramento Union. Inspired by the fairyland of winter snow still in the Valley, she wrote a letter describing it to the Union.

"Just after she mailed her piece, Editor Brooks called upon her and she asked if 'you have written anything about that glorious trip?'

"Brooks looked at her with astonishment and replied, 'Do you think I would have the temerity to attempt to depict what we saw there? It transcends my pen.'

"Abashed, embarrassed and disheartened, the fledgling authoress waited for a rejection, but the mail brought a $20 check from the Union. Brooks felt that her expressions had transcended her temerity!

"Soon 'Ridinghood' became an established literary figure with regular publication and friendships with other notables of the pioneer era like Bret Harte, Ina Coolbrith, William Keith, and the John C. Fremonts.

"After her July 1870 marriage to lawyer-politician-editor James H. Lawrence of Mariposa, her love affair with Yosemite intensified. The couple made many trips to it from nearby Mariposa. Mrs. Lawrence's keen sense of humor was evidenced in a May 1973 account, published in her husband's Mariposa Gazette, which not only gave interesting details on a Yosemite trip but a picture of man's traveling dictates versus women's resistance which still sounds contemporary."

"Thursday - Out of sorts. Ready to start for the Yo Semite and J-- says 'Not a bit of baggage!' I gently demur...fondly gazing on my ingeniously packed valise. 'A few pocket handkerchiefs is all you need' adds my unfeeling friend. A few pocket handkerchiefs! my heart fails within me as I insist that slippers, stockings, cold cream, cuffs, collars, curls, a nice dressy suit, jacket, and several other traps are indispensable... Therefore, a caress, a little flattery, and a few easily raised tears, soon effect a compromise. The valise is unpacked and the contents, and surreptitiously, several other articles added thereto and beautifully jumbled into a gunny bag. Then I mount my saddle...

"Sunday (in Yosemite Valley) --J-- calls majestically for clean cuffs, collars, comb-brush, pommade, stockings, handkerchiefs, etc. This is the consistent gentleman who recommended 'No baggag!' Greenland's icy mountains are recommended for coolness, but bless me, isn't his audacity ever so many degrees cooler? Consistence ceases to be that celebrated jewel -J- takes its place... Well, I'm simply an Angel of Patience and Mercy with the blessed gunnybag to help me out!"

08-00591-06 ALICE CECILIA TINGLEY-DICKEY died Aug. 30, 1929 at La Fontaine, IN. Her husband, Benjamin, was a bluegrass farmer along the lines of the Bible agriculturalists. He did not raise sheep on account of an experience he had years ago with dogs but kept his pastures well stocked with cattle and hogs. In one field of 120 acres across the road from the house were 63 head of one and two-year-old steers that lived well there all summeer and went into the market in the fall without any expense for feed. Mr. Dickey frequently shipped to the Eastern markets on his own account and when he was short he bought enough cattle to finish out a carload.

The four shorthorn cows that have calves and which they milk after turning in the calves are pedigree cows. Instead of milking in an outside lot and following the cows at will, Oscar Dickey, their son, put them into the stanchions and milked them with comfort to himself. He gave each cow a lick of feed, not because she needed it, but because it made them easier to put into the stables. They knew that something was due them.

While there are no new buildings at The Maples, the B.F. Dickey home in Liberty there is everything necessary to comfort and Mr. Dickey has no ambition to leave a modern house as a monument to his memory. His brother J. M. Dickey, who owns Clovernook Farm lying just west of him, put up some splendid farm buildings several years ago and then retired to Fairmount. His brother, Hugh M. Dickey, who lived a little farther away, but in sight, had finer buildings but when Rigdon is penetrated by an interurban car line, Mrs. Dickey thinks they will live there and she didn't care to have a fine home on the farm and have to leave it. J. M. Dickey's of Fairmount often wish their country house was in town.

The Benjamin F. Dickeys celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Their son, Oscar, a bachelor, lived with them, also Mrs. Dickey's sister, Miss Susan Tingley. Mr. Dickey being almost 80 years of age, almost totally blind, and somewhat feeble, was able to get about with the aid of a cane. He was the owner of three excellent farms in Grant county and one near Summitville.

Several articles from San Diego, CA newspapers have been sent to the compiler in connection with Madam Tingley, widow of Philo B. Tingley, known as Madam Katherine A. Tingley, theosophist extraordinaire who planted the seeds. Today they have grown into Point Loma's most prestigious new community, Point Loma Woods. Many would find the articles interesting and if they wish to follow the progress there is certainly enough publicity given to the rebuilding going on there in San Diego, CA that articles are available from many Tingleys and through local libraries so precious space in these volumes should not try to quote all the details. There is even a book The Story of New San Diego and its Founder Alonzo E. Horton by Elizabeth C. MacPhail.

The following was contributed by Blanche:

"My mother, Mary Jocelyn Monroe, a native of Pennsylvania, married to Sheldon Ulysses Stearns, Jan. 1st, 1850. He was 10 years her senior. They had 9 children: 8 daughters, 1 son; 2 daughters died in childhood. 3 children were born in Pennsylvania, 3 in Iowa, 3 in Kansas.

"Everywhere they were pioneers. They drove to southeastern Kansas from Iowa in covered wagons, had their cattle with them. Others were traveling with them. My mother's mother accompanied them, also her two brothers, one with his family, just returned from the Union Army.

"The Indians left what was called 'the strip' after we arrived, and I have a memory of them going in their feathers and paint, covering the hill and valley that morning.

"There was the usual work to be done as in all new settlements. My mother and her mother washed wool, carded it and spun it. Our spinning wheel was not a small one as those sold for antiques, but a large one. They had to walk to and from holding the roll first which was fastened to the distaff with the right hand. I cannot explain it. When the distaff was full, there were other things to do before it was made into a skein, then into a ball, and ready to knit.

"My mother cut and made our clothes, not only dresses and coats but cotton underwear, much of it by hand. As we grew older, we were taught to sew and knit.

"She made the candles in a mold, six at a time. We often had the teacher from the one room school boarding with us. One of these teachers was about my mother's age (Mrs. Kilmer). She brought Uncle Tom's Cabin, Shakespeare, Dickens, Scott's and Tennyson's poems. We had weekly papers from which our father read the news, and often continued stories. There was the Interocean, the Toledo Blade, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, and his church paper, from which he always read the sermons aloud, usually on a Sunday evening.

"We had our garden vegetables and flowers. When our fruit trees reached the bearing stage, we dried the fruit. Before that we found grapes and plums which we enjoyed. Later a friend taught my mother to can fruit by putting it cooked in tin cans with covers that fitted into a groove, and we poured hot sealing wax into the groove.

"We pieced and quilted quilts and there was plenty to do in those pioneer days. My work was hemming ruffles. We had them, too. Nothing was wasted. Butter was made and sold often at 15 cents a pound. Eggs were sold for 10 cents a dozen.

"Our mother lived to the age of 77. Our father died in 1888, aged 66. Afterward we drifted to Washington, the brother coming first. We came in 1892 when Elsa was a year old. My Leslie was born in Sumas City in May 1893. Our mother died at the home of our sister near Lynden, Washington, and all but the sister in Illinois were there at the funeral. She is buried in the cemetery at Lynden. Our father lies in the cemetery at Peru, Kansas, on a hill."

08-00821-01 TRUMAN DENNISON TINGLEY

Ruth Orrick says he brought his family to Nebraska in June 1883, lived the first summer in Halsey Peckham house where mother kept house while Mrs. Peckham was East visiting. Then moved into house on Worthy Place and lived till spring; then moved to dugout on their own place till they got a house built; which she (Nancy) lived in until she died.

Truman Dennison died Dec. 17, 1910 and the funeral services were held in Banner M. E. Church Dec. 19, 1910. The preacher was Rev. Chas. Stevens. Burial was in Peckham Cem.

Father Tingley's ancestors came from Connecticut as pioneers and settled in Northeastern PA - Susquehanna County, where he was born and grew to manhood. He was drafted in Civil War but owing to an injury to his foot making that leg 1/2" shorter than the other he was rejected. Father Tingley's grandfather was a Revolutionary War soldier.

Nancy Lovisa Bailey-Tingley was taken sick Jan. 28, 1934 and kept growing worse until she died Feb. 18, 1934 at about 3:00 P. M. The body was taken to the Sholund Funeral Home where it remained until the funeral at 2 P.M. on Tues. Feb. 20, 1934. She was a charter member of the Antelope Center Church. (This was copied by Ruth Orrick from the Memorial Book of Lovisa Nancy Bailey-Tingley, was written in book by Edna Viola, Ruth's grandmother.)

08-00260-04 CHARLES ABNER FILLMORE

CHARLES ABNER HITS 100

On the wall, tucked away in a corner, the following saying can be seen: "Any man can be a father; but it takes someone special to be a dad."

Mr. Fillmore was a "dad" of five, granddad to 16, great-granddad to 35 and great-great-granddad to four. He will celebrate his 100th birthday Sunday January 3rd at the Kenneth Spencer Memorial Home near Moncton, N.B.

Mr. Fillmore was interviewed recently, with help from his eldest son, Raymond of 76 years. He told about his days as a farmer and lumberman at Dorchester Cape, and his secrets of a long life.

Born near Amherst, N.S. Jan. 3, 1882, Mr. Fillmore fondly remembers the days when he would haul good furnace wood to the Nova Scotia town and receive $3 per cord.

Saying that he worked on the farm, as a boy, for 10 cents a day, he reflected on the 'awful' increases in prices throughout the years. He chuckled that his wage rose to 35 cents when things were really booming.

When he was young, along with his two brothers, they did a lot of work on his parents' farm. One brother died from pneumonia when he was about 35, and the other lived to 97. A sister died in infancy.

Mr. Fillmore recalls that about 65 years ago he owned and operated a farm in Dorchester Cape where he and his wife celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary a few years ago, raised their three sons and two daughters. His wife lived to be 93. All five children are living as they celebrate his 100th birthday.

With the many changes Mr. Fillmore has seen during his 100 years he cannot say that people are any better off today.

"The workline (for laborers) has improved, but I do not know if the people are better off", he philosophized.

He recalls the last time that he drove horses to any extent. It was when he was about 80, when he cut a field of grain with a reaper for about three hours.

Even in retirement, he kept busy. Music is one of his great loves. Up to five years ago, at age 95, Mr. Fillmore and his three sons performed as the "Grampy Quartet" at local churches.

When asked what the secret was to long life, Mr. Fillmore tilted his head upwards, smiled and replied, "That's quite a question". He then said, "I never touched liquor in my 100 years and never smoked or chewed tobacco. Working hard didn't hurt either."

Mr. Fillmore hopes to add to the congratulations he received from Premier Hatfield on his 99th birthday on Sunday, Jan. 3, 1982. Messages are expected from the Queen and other officials; but for the centenarian, the highlight of the day will no doubt be the open house planned for the home between 2 and 4 p.m. when family, friends, and relatives are expected to visit. (Supplied by Clayton Sinclair working on the Carter family who was especially interested as Mr. Fillmore's mother was a Carter, commented Clayton Sinclair.)

Charles A. Fillmore died Feb. 28, 1985, aged 103.[216]

08-00240-02 GEORGE HENRY ALONZO CRABTREE married Julia Ann Walton and on April 5, 1925 she wrote the following letter to Matie (Mrs. Jay Dodd), her niece:

"I have been thinking all day of you so will write and tell you first that I was very pleased with the nice letter you wrote me so long ago. I thot I would answer right away but just keep putting it off. If you will forgive me this time I will try and do better hereafter.

"I still like to live here I am intending to come back and see everybody this summer if nothing happens. We have been very busy. We began last spring about this time to build a house out by the vineyard. We did a good deal of the work ourselves so it kept us busy. We have three houses down town but they are all of them larger houses than I wanted. We have them rented. This house is just the right size, Parlor 12 x 14, spare bedroom 10 x 12, kitchen and dining room together 12 x 14 hall way and open stairway together and a bathroom 12 x 6 downstairs. Upstairs there is two bedrooms and two closets and a store room and a prch on the south 8 x 24. It is built bungalo style with upstairs porch 8 x 12. From the upstairs porch we can see Lake Michigan for miles. I am sometimes a longtime doing my chamber work because I go out on the porch and watch boats on the lake.

"Pa and I are alone now you see. Dezell is on the road selling Zion Office Supplies. How is your father? Where is Shirley and Elsie? Tell Jay I wish he and you would come and see us I know you folks would enjoy the meetings. Do you have a radio? We have a small one. I like to listen to the concerts over it.

"How is Uncle Wills folks? If you see them tell them I often wish I could see them. Why don't you and them just jump into the car sometime and come see us. I know I should be very glad to see you.

"I forgot to tell you how handy my dining and kitchen together is. It has a large cabinet with side cabinets for brooms, vacuum cleaner and everything shut in, handy electric range, nice little white sink with drain, in one corner table and chairs and heating stove in winter. We have fireplace in the parlor. Have Electric lights, electric washing machine and flat iron. There is a lean-to on the north house 18 x 10. This is divided into a wood house and wash room. We have a deep well of soft water and windmill, and made a cement tank about 5 x 4 ft., 4 ft. deep and bring the water from well with force pump and hose. Have a Pul Engine presure tank in cellar. This makes it handy. We are on the farm again, have 7 cows - our milk check last month was over $100.00, five heifer calves, 1 year old and a gentlman cow, two black horses, 16 Bared Rock chickens, one black cat.

"I started this the 5th now it is the 10th. The reason I made so many mistakes - I am watching the cattle out of the orchard. We took the fence down to build better and pa had to go and help John seeding. I have had to chase them back four times since I started to finish this - so good bye.

With love and a prayer for you all
Aunt Julia"

Dezell tells about his mother as he remembers her:

I Remember Mother

"My Mother was Julia Ann Walton Crabtree, born in 1865 at Oakland Valley, Iowa. I suppose I was a great disappointment to mother, first because I was a boy when she wanted a girl. She often told me they had hoped and prayed for a girl. Yet it was mother who had me kneel at her side as she taught me the way of salvation.

"My Mother taught school before she was married and when I was about 11 with Father's permission she again taught country school. She was an excellent teacher and folks would come and beg to get her to teach their school.

"I think perhaps I should have listened more to Mother's wishes. She would have like to had me get more education so I disappointed her in this too, though she never told me so.

"My Mother could stack oat bundles into the most beautiful round stacks you ever saw. I remember she would take John and I out to the field to shuck corn with a husking peg. Down the rows we would go with team and wagon. When she found a red ear John and I would each get a big kiss. Those were wonderful days to remember. If Father was late or gone for a few days she would help milk and see that the chores were done right.

"My Mother was a Christian and I think she helped Father in his Christian life. She hated tobacco and liquor and vice of any and all kinds and let every one know she hated them. She didn't want her children to be slaves to habit or sin. I hope my life, by God's help will be an honor to her. I loved her very much."

Dezel tells about his father as he remembers him:

I Remember Father

"My father's name was Henry A. Crabtree, born at Freeport, Illinois in 1861. But my memory goes back just so far. In 1907 or 08 when I was about 3 my Father let me sit on his lap after supper as he read the paper or a book. There was to be no wiggle, no talk, or motion, yet as I think back it seemed so near like heaven and the best place on earth. I loved him so much, I am glad I can remember it.

"As us boys grew older I was about 8 or 10 I recall how Father would read aloud to Mother and us on a winter day or evening when the Youths Companion would come in the mail, or a book like, Shepherd of the Hills, The Calling of Dan Matthews, Seventeen, Vandermarks Folly and many others. Father had almost no school education. I believe he told me he was in 4th or 5th grade when his father kept him home to work. Yet he could read and write better than many college men. He could read a poem two or three times and repeat it word for word.

"My father sometimes let me talk to him about my dreams and future plans. As he listened at these times it seemed we were very close as Father and Son. I sometimes wish I would have listened more while he talked. I am sure he would have liked that.

"Yes my father could be a stern man too. I recall a few of my whippings and I bowed my head in sorrow and silence. He had no desire that any of his boys or girls would grow up to be fools or wastrels.

"My Father was a Christian. His rugged honesty and open life left no regrets. He had no bad habits, not one. As a boy I have heard him pray at family worship and church services in a clear plain voice without emotion. I thought God surely loves Father. He had read the whole Bible through two times and was on his third reading when he passed away. I loved him very much."

Two types of numbers will be found in this book. One, the family number, consisting of seven digits. An example 10-01434, where the 10 indicates that the family is of the tenth generation and the 01434 indicates that it is the 1434th family of that generation. The second type of number, the number of an individual as a child, consists of nine digits. An example is 10-01434-03, where the 10 indicates that the individual is a child of a 10th generation family, the 01434 indicates that the individual is a child of the 1434th family of that generation, and the 03 indicates that the individual is the third child of that family. Birth dates will indicate whether or not the correct sequence of the children is known or was known (no birthdate, or dates not in sequence, sequence was probably not known when listed).

The arrangement of the book is by family numbers. Immediately preceding each family, in the center of the line will be found the family number corresponding to that family. At the beginning of the paragraph describing a family will be found the number of the head of the family as a child. This enables one to trace a line back to the beginning, that is, back to Palmer.

Under each family those children appearing elsewhere as heads of families will have, following their birthdate, the family number of the family of which they are the head, or, if married to another Tingley descendant, that child may be the spouse in that family if not shown as the head of that family. This enables one to trace the descendants of an individual.

The numbers appearing in the index are family numbers. It will be noted that some of them have a prefix "S". Such a number following an individual's name in the index indicates that person is a spouse of a Tingley descendant. Thus McKINLEY, Mary Alice S10-01434 was the wife of Ralph Anderson Bell 09-00691-01 when he became head of family 10-01434. She is found in the paragraph just below the family number and before children are listed in the family.

When the number following an individual's name in the index has no "S" prefix that number is a family number under which the individual will be listed as a child. Thus, BELL, Donald Daniel 10-01434 is found in the 10th generation, 1434th family and is the second child shown. Number following his name is 11-03128, which will appear in a future volume. If no number is shown, he was not married (or it was not known) at the time the book went to press.

To trace one's own line back to the beginning, that is, back to Palmer, one should start with his own name and the number which follows his name in the index. For example, as above, 10-01434 following name BELL, Donald Daniel in index will be found in the 10th generation, 1434th family and is the second child. His father, at the beginning of the paragraph for family 10-01434 has a number preceding his name 09-00691-01. This says that he was the first child in the 691st family of the ninth generation, Mary Mabel Tingley-Bell. By looking up the 691st family of the ninth generation (vol. III) it will be found that Ralph Anderson is the 1st child and the number after his name is 10-01434. Now to trace back farther repeat this process. For finding relationships between individuals see instructions in volume I, page 518.

Adopted children and their lines are carried in italics to distinguish them from those of Tingley blood.

When a person was known by his middle name rather than his first name, that name is underlined.
